On motion of Mr. Rankin, it was made the order of the day for to-morrow at 12 M. to hear Delegates who may be present from Corresponding bodies.

On motion of S. M. Hamill, the Assembly then proceeded to choose a place for the meeting of the next General Assembly. Baltimore, Md., Washington, D. C., Springfield, Ill., Indianapolis, Ind., Columbus, Ohio, Memphis, Tenn., Chicago, Ill., and Louisville, Ky, were nominated. On the first vote no one had a majority of all the votes given; and the rule was suspended so far as to vote without calling the roll on the two highest only. 130 votes were then given for Columbus, and 107 for Washington.

On motion of Dr. J. D. Smith, it was Resolved, That the meeting be held in the First Presbyterian Church of Columbus, at the usual time.

Dr. Hodge, from the Committee on the Book of Discipline, made a verbal report, that nothing had been done by that Committee since the last Assembly; owing to the absence and illness of the chairman, and the disturbed condition of the country.

The report was accepted; and the Committee was continued, and directed to report to the next General Assembly.

Overture No. 5. From the Executive Committee of the Board of Foreign Missions on the question of transferring, instead of translating, the word "baptizo," by our missionaries to the heathen. The Committee recommended unanimously that this word be translated instead of transferred.

On motion of Mr. Lowrie, the report was amended so far as to read, "when it is practicable, in the nature of the language, into which a version of the Scriptures is made."

In this form the report was adopted.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Mr. H. H. Hopkins.

SATURDAY Morning, May 18.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Dr. Imbrie.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

Dr. Lord, from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, reported,

That the Rev. John D. Gibson is present at this Assembly, as a Delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of New York. Mr. Gibson represents the Synod as desirous of Christian correspondence with this venerable body, in the hope of its conducing to a closer union between brethren and churches, whose great systems of doctrine and polity are so essentially the same.

The Committee recommend that the Rev. Mr. Gibson be cordially welcomed by the Assembly, and that, at the proper time, a Delegate be appointed to represent the Assembly at the annual meeting of the Synod.

This report was adopted, and it was made the order of the day at 11½ o'clock to hear Mr. Gibson.

A communication from Dr. H. L. Hodge was read, declining, on account of numerous engagements, and the state of his health, to accept his appointment as Trustee of the General Assembly. This resignation was accepted, and on motion of Mr. Waller, the Hon. George Sharswood was unanimously appointed in his place.

The different orders of the day were then called up in regular series, and Narratives on the state of religion, and reports on Systematic Benevolence, and Synodical Records, were presented, and put into the hands of the respective committees.

The order of the day was then taken up—the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Church Extension, which was adopted, as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Report be approved and published.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly approve of the fidelity of the Board of Church Extension in the discharge of its high trust.

Resolved, 3. That the cause of Church Extension be commended to our people as one of the permanent agencies of the Church, in the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom.

Resolved, 4. That the Memorial of the Synod of Chicago in reference to parsonages be referred to the Board of Church Extension.

Another resolution respecting the action of the Board, in making appeals to all the children of the Church for a church edifice at St. Ann's, was referred to the Committee on Systematic Benevolence.

Nominations were made to fill vacancies in this Board; and the election was made the first order of the day for Friday next in the afternoon.

Dr. Spring offered a resolution, that a Special Committee be appointed to inquire into the expediency of this Assembly making some expression of their devotion to the Union of these States, and their loyalty to the Government; and if in their judgment it is expedient so to do, they report what that expression shall be.

On motion of Mr. Hoyte, this resolution was laid on the table by a vote of 123 to 102.

A call for the "yeas and nays," to be recorded, was made by Mr. Robertson, after the members had begun to vote by rising, which the Moderator declared to be out of order.

After the result of the vote had been announced, Mr. H. K. Clarke moved to take this resolution up from the table, and on this motion called for the yeas and nays. Points of order were discussed on this motion, until the Moderator called for the order of the day, to hear Delegates from Corresponding bodies.

Mr. Gibson, from the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, then addressed the Assembly, with fraternal salutations, and statements respecting the body that he represented.

Dr. Messler afterwards expressed the fraternal sympathy and love of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church.

To each of these brethren, in turn, the Moderator responded on behalf of the Assembly, with reciprocal assurances of interest and affection.

The discussion was then resumed on points of order connected with the motion of Mr. H. K. Clarke, and a substitute offered by Mr. Allen, that the resolution of Dr. Spring be taken up and made an order of the day for Tuesday next.

The time fixed for the closing devotional exercises of the morning session having arrived, the Moderator called the Assembly to these exercises. Praise was sung; and prayer was offered by Drs. Spring and Studdiford.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet on Monday morning, at 9 o'clock.

MONDAY Morning, May 20.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. Bergen.

The minutes of Saturday were read and approved.

Dr Jacobus, from the Judicial Committee, reported Judical Case, No. 1, in reference to the complaint of Smiley Shepherd against the Synod of Illinois. The records of the Presbytery of Bloomington, necessarily involved in the case, being absent, the Committee recommend that the Synod be censured for neglecting to send up the records; and that the case be deferred for trial until the records appear.

The report was adopted.

Judicial Case, No. 5. An appeal by a part of the minority of the Presbytery of Baltimore to the General Assembly, against the action of said Presbytery in reference to a certain memorial presented by the complainants of the Third Presbyterian Church of Baltimore. There being no records of the Presbytery present, and no prosecutor appearing, the Committee recommend that the appeal be dismissed.

Adopted.

The Moderator called for a report from the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly on the "Home and Foreign Record." Messrs. Lowrie, Musgrave, Chester, Schenck, and Watts, Secretaries, responded with verbal reports.

On motion of Mr. Lindsley, it was ordered, that a Special Committee be appointed by this Assembly to report on this subject during its sessions.

The Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Jones made a report respecting the "Fund for Disabled Ministers and the Families of Deceased Ministers," and other matters connected with this cause.

On motion of Mr. Mahaffey, this report was referred to a Special Committee.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up, the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education. Dr. Matthews submitted the following resolutions, which, after Dr. Chester, the Secretary, had been heard by the Assembly, were adopted, viz.

The Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Board of Education, after examining that report, together with the accounts, books, and vouchers of the Board, submitted to their inspection according to the requisition of the General Assembly, submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly approve of the management of their educational interests as conducted by the Board; of their energy, prudence, and economy, in meeting all their liabilities for the year without borrowing money or incurring debt; and that their report be printed and circulated under their direction.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly are called upon to give thanks to the Great Head of the Church for that measure of blessing which has attended the work of the Board during the year past. It has pleased the Lord of the harvest to increase the number of candidates, so that a larger number is reported this year than any previous year, there being five hundred and five candidates, of which one hundred and fifty-six were added to the list during the year.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly deeply deplore the fact, as brought to light by this report, that the amount contributed to this fund during the past year has not equalled the amount contributed in former years. There are doubtless some unusual causes which have produced this sad result, as nearly two thousand of the churches have failed to contribute anything; yet the Assembly would earnestly enjoin it upon all their churches to contribute annually and liberally to this object.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly renew their recommendations to the Presbyteries to exercise great caution in recommending candidates for the high and holy office of the ministry to the care of the Board. And also to seek out such as they can cordially recommend for aid while prosecuting their studies for the ministry.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly rejoice in that measure of success afforded the schools, academies, and colleges, connected with our churches; and would again urge the attention of the churches to the solemn duty of establishing and supporting in their bounds such schools as will secure the religious culture of the children of the Church; in many of the schools and colleges the Lord has been pleased to revive his work, for which the Assembly would devoutly give thanks.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly deeply deplore the loss of so many and such devoted servants of God—members of this Board, who have died during the past year—"six of their number have been called home from the toils of the vineyard to the recompense of reward." The Assembly would bow with submission to these Divine dispensations, ordered in wisdom and goodness; while they express their deep sense of gratitude to the Giver of all good that these beloved and useful brethren were permitted so long and so faithfully to labour in promoting the cause of Christian education in the Church for the sacred office of the ministry. The departure from their posts of such men of God as the venerable Dr. Neill, Dr. Harris, Dr. Herron, Dr. Murray, J. P. Engles, Silas Holmes, and the beloved and self-sacrificing Van Rensselaer, will be deplored and felt throughout the whole Church; and the call is loud to those who remain, "to be diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord."

Resolved, 7. That the last Thursday of February next be observed throughout our communion as a day of special prayer for children and youth, especially those collected in academies, colleges, and seminaries, that the Lord of the harvest would send forth labourers into his vineyard, and that a collection be taken up on that day for the College Fund.

One resolution to change the designation of the Associate Secretary was recommitted to the same Committee.

On motion of Dr. Edwards, the following resolution was adopted, viz.

Resolved, That the Committee on the Report of the Board of Education be instructed to revise the constitution and by-laws of said Board, and report what amendments, if any, it may be expedient for the Assembly to ordain.

Nominations were made to fill vacancies in this Board, and the election was made the second order of the day for next Friday afternoon.

Dr. Yeomans, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 11. Relating to election of Professor in the Theological Seminary of the North-West. The Committee have transferred this paper to the standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

Approved.

Overture No. 1. From John Marquis, on the right of a Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relation against the wish of the pastor and a majority of the congregation.

The Committee recommend that the Assembly answer this question by referring the parties to the answer given by the last Assembly to a similar question, as recorded in Minutes, page 39; at the same time by expressing the opinion, that such power should in all cases be exercised with the greatest caution and discretion, and that the reasons for such action should be always fully recorded.

On a motion to adopt this report of the Committee, the discussion was continued to the hour of 12 M.; when the Assembly, according to a previous appointment, retired, to spend an hour in the noonday prayer-meeting at the Sansom street church; resolving, on motion, to take a recess from business till 4 P. M.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. Anderson.

Hervey Law, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Passaic, appeared, and was enrolled as an additional Commissioner.

A letter was read from Dr. Thornwell, of the Committee on Revision of the Book of Discipline, giving substantially the same reason for want of action as that already given by Dr. Hodge.

The Moderator announced the appointment of two Special Committees, as follows, viz. On the Home and Foreign Record, or periodicals to be published under the direction of the Boards—Messrs. Lindsley, Dickson, Hoyte, McInnis, and Biggs, ministers; and Messrs. Baldwin, Caldwell, and Hubbard, ruling elders. On the report respecting the "Fund for Disabled Ministers," Messrs. Mahaffey, Musgrave, Lloyd, Aitken, Jacobus, and Peden, ministers; and Messrs. Dungan, Morris Patterson, and Semple, ruling elders.

The unfinished business, Overture No. 1, was resumed; and after further discussion, at the request of the Chairman, it was recommitted to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Overture No. 7. A request from the church of Caroline, to be transferred from the Presbytery of Western Reserve to that of Marion.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted.

Adopted.

Dr. Jacobus, from the Judicial Committee, reported

Judicial Case No. 2. A protest and complaint from R. J. Breckinridge and others against the Synod of Kentucky, respecting the exercise of suffrage in the election of a pastor.

The Committee recommend the following as the decision of the Assembly, viz. That, whereas the Form of Government does not exclude those from voting for a pastor who are members of the congregation, but not members of the church, provided they have complied with the requirement in Form of Government, Chap. xv. Sec. 4, therefore the protest and complaint be sustained, and the decision of the Synod be reversed.

This report was accepted; and a discussion upon the motion to adopt was continued to the hour of adjournment, when the Assembly adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Mr. Ogden.

TUESDAY Morning, May 21.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

That they have received a letter from the Rev. Francis Cannon, of the Established Church of Scotland, and Chaplain to the forces in Camp Aldershott, near London, suggesting, for various reasons therein contained, the organizing of an English mission by this Assembly.

The Committee recommend, that while highly appreciating the extreme courtesy and good will which mark the Rev. Mr. Cannon's letter, the Assembly judge his suggestion, in the present state of the Church and country, impracticable; and direct a copy of this resolution to be transmitted to the Rev. Mr. Cannon by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

The unfinished business, Judicial Case No. 2, was resumed.

Dr. Monfort moved, as a substitute for the report of the Committee, the following:

Resolved, That the complaint be dismissed, for the reason that it asks the Assembly to reverse an opinion delivered in thesi, and therefore not properly a cause of complaint.

The question was on this motion, when the order of the day for 10 o'clock was called, the report of the standing Committee on the Board of Publication.

Dr. McPhail presented the report of the Committee, which was accepted.

Dr. Schenck, the Secretary, addressed the Assembly on the work and condition of this Board.

On a motion to adopt the report of the Committee, a discussion arose, which was continued till the order of the day for hearing Mr. Cook was called. When his address was concluded, it was, on motion of Mr. Rankin,

Resolved, That a Special Committee be appointed, of which Judge Allen should be the Chairman, to express, by a suitable minute to our churches, the belief that the great services, under Providence, of the New York Sabbath Association, affords an assurance that similar efforts may, under God, produce similar blessings upon other churches and communities.

The Assembly then engaged in singing and prayer for half an hour, being led in prayer by Messrs. Dickson, H. K. Clarke, and Peden.

Adjourned to meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Hastings.

Its first meeting to be held in Danville, Pennsylvania, on the third Tuesday of October next, at 2 o'clock, P. M., to be opened with a sermon by Rev. Dr. Yeomans, or, in case of his absence, by the oldest minister present.

The Committee recommend that this request be granted.

Docketed.

The unfinished business on the report of the Committee on the Board of Publication was then resumed, Dr. Musgrave having the floor.

Dr. Edwards moved that the Committee on the report of this Board be instructed to make certain inquiries respecting the organization and policy of the Board.

Dr. Monfort moved, as an amendment, that these inquiries be referred to a Committee of seven, to report to the next General Assembly.

On motion, this amendment was postponed, for the purpose of hearing the Secretary, Dr. Schenck, in any statements and explanations he might desire to make, on the whole subject of the policy and operations of the Board. These statements were continued to the hour of adjournment.

The Moderator announced the presence of the Rev. Dr. Fisch from Paris, France; and on motion, it was resolved to invite him to address the Assembly to-morrow at 12 o'clock, M. behalf of the "Fund for Disabled Ministers," &c., made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

The report of the Committee of the Trustees of the General Assembly in the case of Disabled Ministers and the indigent widows and orphans of deceased ministers, has been examined by your Committee, and they respectfully present the following resolutions for the consideration of this body.

1st. Resolved, That the General Assembly have heard with lively interest the report of the Trustees in the case of Disabled Ministers in need, and the needy widows and orphans of deceased ministers.

2d. Resolved, That they learn with deep regret that so large a proportion of the churches under their care still withhold their contributions to this cause.

3d. Resolved, That they earnestly repeat the injunction of several preceding Assemblies, that annual collections be made in all the churches, and that they be reported under a separate head, as required by a resolution of the last Assembly.

4th. Resolved, That the Assembly have heard with pleasure of the past exertions of the Chairman of the Disbursing Committee, to whose agency this cause has been mainly entrusted almost from the beginning, and they cordially commend his future efforts in behalf of the object, to the sympathy and co-operation of the churches.

5th. Resolved, That the report be adopted and printed in the Appendix to the Minutes, and that extra copies of it be issued by the Board of Publication for distribution to the sessions of our churches for their consideration, and that pastors and stated supplies be requested to read the report in their congregations before the next annual collection for this cause shall be made.

6th. Resolved, That it be enjoined on the Presbyteries to appoint one of their number to take charge of this business within their bounds, and see that these resolutions are observed, and report to the Chairman of the Committee of Trustees.

On motion of Dr. J. D. Smith, it was made the first order of the day for to-morrow afternoon to call for Reports on Synodical Records.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then called; the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions. WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Mr. Critchlow.

On motion of Mr. Ogden, it was made the first order of the day for Saturday morning, to resume the consideration of Judicial Case No. 2.

The unfinished business of the morning, on the Report of the Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, was resumed, Dr. Musgrave having the floor. Dr. Happersett followed, and continued till the hour of adjournment; when,

On motion of Mr. Lowrie, the exercises already ordered for this evening were postponed, and the Assembly took a recess till 8 o'clock, for the purpose of continuing this unfinished business.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, 8 o'clock.

The Assembly met and continued the unfinished business on the Board of Domestic Missions, Dr. Happersett having the floor.

When he concluded, a motion was made by Mr. Henry, to adopt the report of the majority of the Committee, with the exception indicated by that of the minority.

Judge Ewing moved as an amendment, to adopt simply the report of the majority.

The "previous question" was moved by Mr. Dubuar, and was carried.

The vote was then taken, seriatim, on the report of the majority, and on that of the minority, in its proper place; the latter was rejected by a vote of 81 to 84, and the whole report offered by the majority was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions respectfully report, that having consulted the Minutes of the Board, and of its Executive Committee, conferred with the officers, and examined the Report, they recommend, that,

1. The General Assembly approve the Report, and direct it to be published.

2. The Assembly gratefully acknowledge the disposing grace of God, which has enabled those who conduct the operations of the Board to increase the number of missionaries 106 over that of the preceding year; making the whole number in commission 707; resulting in the organization of 52 churches, affording the means of grace to 1,239, and bringing into the communion of the Church 2,429; also 1,689 admissions by letter.

3. While the Assembly learn with deep regret that many of our churches still fail to come up to the help of the Lord in this great department of his work, it is gratifying to find that the delinquents are diminishing in number; that 117 more have contributed during the past than in any preceding year; the entire number contributing through the Board being now 1,822: and from this chief source of reliance under God, the contributions have exceeded those of the preceding year about $8,120.

4. The Assembly is still farther gratified that in accordance with its recommendation of former years, the French, Welsh, and Germans, in our land, as also the coloured population of the South, have had the gospel preached to them more extensively by our self-denying missionaries; most of whom practice itineracy to some extent—sixty being wholly employed in this toilsome sort of service.

5. The Assembly notice with special satisfaction that during the last quarter of the past year, when it was feared that the salaries of the missionaries must be so reduced as to occasion painful embarrassments, in answer to a special appeal by the Secretaries to the missionary churches, they promised to supplement what the embarrassed Board were constrained to withhold. Thus it is hoped the apprehended evil will be averted, and the missionaries will continue to receive their promised support.

6. Though the Board under the supposed animus of the Assembly of 1859, and under the impulse of its new modification resulting from that Assembly, may perhaps have expanded its operations with undue haste, the Assembly is reluctant to take any backward step in the way of diminishing either the number of missionaries, or the amount of their meagre but well-merited support. And, therefore, it urges upon all the churches so to enlarge their contributions, as that the Board may again be enabled to meet all its engagements, and also to have on hand a needful working balance at the close of each year.

7. The Assembly does not deem it expedient, at this time, either to retract its prohibition of last year against granting certificates of honorary membership to entitle donors to take a place as members of the Board, nor to abolish the Western Executive Committee, as overtured by the Presbytery of Cedar.

Respecting the Memorials from the Synods of Pittsburgh, and the Central Presbytery of Philadelphia, and the Overture from the Presbytery of Cedar, on the subject of the co-ordinate Secretaryship, which were assigned to your Committee, they beg leave to report, that,

1. They find it impracticable "to investigate" "the measures" which are alleged "to have been employed by certain members of the Board to bring about the creation of this office," further than by the Committee's conference with the officers of the Board, and consultation of their books, and by the discussions of the Assembly.

2. In view of the wide-spread disaffection with this office, as involving a needless expenditure of precious funds, and still more, in view of the severe pecuniary pressure of the present time, not likely soon to pass away, the Board should at once abolish the office, and employ but one Secretary.

3. They are fully persuaded that there is such dissatisfaction prevailing throughout large portions of the Church, in regard to this feature in the organization of the Board, that confidence and cordial co-operation can only be restored by the Board passing by, at its election in June next, both the existing Secretaries, and selecting a new man to fill the place.

Nominations were then made for the Board.

On motion of Mr. Childs, it was ordered that the persons authorized to publish the printed report of the Board for this year be directed to correct any errors apparent in the report as already printed.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Mr. McNair.

THURSDAY Morning, May 23.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. Brown.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

Dr. Jacobus, from the Judicial Committee, reported Judicial Case No. 3, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Judicial Committee, to whom was referred the Appeal and Complaint of certain persons claiming to be ruling elders of the church at Little Falls, New York, against the decision of the Synod of Albany, beg leave to report—That they have examined the records and papers in said case; and although the appeal has been taken in proper form, and after due notice, yet, as there has been presented no evidence to sustain the allegations set forth as grounds of reversal, and as the allegations cannot therefore be tried by the Assembly, the Committee recommend that the said Appeal and Complaint be dismissed.

Also, Judicial Case No. 6, on the appeal of T. F. Worrall from the decision of the Synod of Illinois; which was accepted and docketed, and made the second order of the day for Saturday morning.

Also, Judicial Case No. 4—Complaint and Appeal of the Presbytery of Passaic, against the decision of the Synod of New Jersey, in the case of ruling elder William B. Guild.

This report was accepted, docketed, and made the order of the day for Tuesday morning next, at half-past 11 o'clock.

On motion of Dr. Hodge, it was Resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America be, and they are hereby authorized to execute, under their corporate seal, to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church, located at Princeton, in the State of New Jersey, a deed for all their remaining interest in the estate of the Hon. John Wheelock, Doctor of Laws, lately President of Dartmouth College, in the State of New Hampshire, by and under his last will and testament, bearing date the 29th of March, 1817—subject to the conditions and restrictions specified and contained in the deed of the Rev. Dr. William Allen and Maria M. his wife, bearing date the 8th day of June, 1825.

The Moderator announced as the Special Committee on Sabbath Association, called for by the resolution of Tuesday morning, after the address of Mr. Cook, the following: Messrs. Allen, J. Clark, Annan, Fraser, Baker, Ryerson, and Rowland.

The unfinished business on the Board of Publication was resumed.

Dr. Schenck, the Secretary, continued his statements and explanations. When he concluded, the resolution offered by Dr. Edwards as an amendment to the motion to adopt the report of the Standing Committee, and the amendment moved by Dr. Monfort on that of Dr. Edwards, were, on motion of Mr. McInnis, laid on the table.

The question recurring on the motion to adopt the report of the Committee, Mr. Waller had the floor in the discussion, when the order of the day for 10 o'clock was called—the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions.

Dr. Dickinson submitted the report, which was accepted.

Mr. Lowrie, Secretary, was then heard in relation to the general condition and interests of this Board.

The report was discussed, in the consideration of various amendments, which were either withdrawn or referred; and finally it was adopted, as follows:

The Committee appointed on the Twenty-fourth Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, having examined with all due care the details of said report, together with a special report of the Executive Committee, dated May 3d, 1861, beg leave to submit to this Assembly the following resolutions, to wit:

Resolved, 1. That the manner in which the twenty-fourth report of the Board has been prepared by the Executive Committee—embodying, as it does, an outline of the field which the Church, in the name of her adorable Head, is called to enter—with a clear and succinct account of each separate mission, without exaggerating the importance or underrating the difficulties of either; presenting a vivid view of the several missionaries in their respective fields, and amid the varying scenes of missionary life; disclosing with candour the exact condition and prospects of the great work in which the Church has been so long engaged; and appealing, with all the earnestness of pressing want, to the sympathy and aid of the Church, so that her every member, by consulting its pages, may ascertain for himself his duty in the premises, entitles them to this Assembly's warm appreciation of the value of their services, and faithful devotion to the cause of Foreign Missions.

Resolved, 2. That in recording the fact, that no less than six missionary labourers have, during the past year, been removed by death—two among the Indians, one in Northern India, one in Siam, one in China, and one in South America—this Assembly would bear testimony to the fidelity with which they prosecuted their work to the last, and cherish the memory of their self-denying love for the cause of Christ. And while humbly bowing to God's most holy will, in these visitations of his providence, so severely felt in the families and missions to which those now sainted ones belonged, would devoutly recognize his claims on the gratitude of the Church, in having raised up a larger number than usual, who have already offered themselves to the Board, to go wherever they may be sent.

Resolved, 3. That notwithstanding the losses which the cause has sustained, and more particularly by the decease of Messrs. Lowrie and Sharpe—both in the glowing morning of their manhood, and eminently qualified by their talents and attainments for great usefulness in the respective fields which they had so resolutely entered—notwithstanding the number of missionary labourers in India is less than it was in 1857, and that a number whose services seemed indispensable to the missions with which they were connected, have been constrained, by the loss of health, to suspend their labours; yet there is abundant cause for thanksgiving, in view of the fact, that in all the fields occupied by the Board, the work, in its varied departments, has been carried on with encouraging results; in particular, that the schools and seminaries are not only well conducted, but sending forth many educated native youths, fitted for various spheres of duty and usefulness; that through the agency of these youths, the area of missionary labour in China, India, and Africa, has been materially enlarged; that so many doors are now open for missionary enterprise; and that in response to the cry for more labourers, God has given the grace to so many of our own youth to say, "Here are we; send us."

Resolved, 4. That in view of the diminished receipts of the past year, and the painful apprehension of the Board, that in consequence of the state of the times, the treasury may be more seriously embarrassed, though it is always wise to economize, and may sometimes, as in other relations of life, be necessary to retrench; yet this Assembly, not unmindful of its obligations to the Great Head of the Church, whose favour towards this work has so often been signally displayed; not forgetful of the interest which is felt by not a few of our communion, prompting them to generous acts, and retaining its own deep conviction of the importance of this work to the cause of piety at home as well as abroad, may not assume the responsibility of advising the Board to retrench, by either withholding reinforcements, or lessening the number of auxiliary agencies; much less by recalling any missionary, until the churches shall have a full and fair opportunity of duly considering both the Annual and Special Report, and of making such sacrifices as their regard for the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom, their faith in God's promise to his Church, may prompt them to make in view of the exigencies of the case.

Resolved, 5. That should God, in his all-wise councils, be pleased to try the faith of his people in an extraordinary way, and that amid the dissensions and perils of the times, the Board should not be able to command the means now so urgently needed, then and in that event, it is recommended by this Assembly that they who are now preparing themselves for the foreign field, continue their connection with the Board in all cases where it is practicable, at least for the present year.

Resolved, 6. That to relieve the mind of the Board, this Assembly recommends to every pastor to take up this cause as his own—he being not his own, but Christ's—and to present it to his people at his earliest convenience, that this cause of vital interest to the Church and the world may, in all the solemnity and urgency of its claims, be brought home to all the members of our wide-spread communion. And that in furtherance of this end, it is earnestly recommended to every Church Session, and to the ruling elders of every vacant church, to appoint one or more persons, who may be willing to undertake this labour of love, to visit every member of the congregation, that each in turn may contribute or subscribe to this object, (all subscriptions payable within the year,) and that the amounts so raised or pledged be immediately forwarded to the Treasurer of the Board at New York.

The Committee further report, that having, in compliance with the resolution of the last Assembly, examined the Minutes of the Executive Committee and the Board, they find them to be in the most perfect order; believe them to be in all respects accurate; and recommend that they be approved from the 7th of May, 1860, to May 6, 1861.

Resolutions offered by Mr. Lloyd, as an amendment of the sixth resolution, were referred to the Committee on Systematic Benevolence.

Nominations were made; and

On motion of Mr. Waller, it was made the order of the day for to-morrow afternoon to elect persons to fill vacancies in the Boards of Domestic Missions and Foreign Missions, according to the order in which the reports on those Boards were presented to the Assembly.

On motion of Dr. McPhail, the usual devotional exercises for half an hour, at the close of the morning session, were postponed, and appointed to be held this afternoon, from five to six o'clock, in a meeting for prayer with the brethren of the city, who are invited to attend.

It was also, on motion, resolved to meet on Monday next, at twelve o'clock, M., as on Monday last, in the noonday prayer-meeting at Sansom Street Church.

The unfinished business on the Board of Publication was then resumed, Mr. Waller having the floor, who continued his remarks till the hour of adjournment.

Closed with prayer by Mr. Martin.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. Hall.

The order of the day was called, reports on Synodical Records.

The Records of the Synods of Albany, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburg, Allegheny, Wheeling, Cincinnati, Indiana, Northern Indiana, Illinois, Chicago, and Nashville, were approved without exceptions.

The Records of the Synod of Buffalo were approved, with the exception that on page 168 there is no record that the session of Synod was opened and closed with prayer.

The Records of the Synod of Ohio were approved, with the exceptions, 1st. That on page 77 it is stated, that after discussion, certain resolutions were adopted, as follows—none of these resolutions appear on record, and their character is not described. 2d. In a judicial case, on its issue, the final record, containing the sentence of the Court, is defective, inasmuch as its statement gives no clue to the merits or significance of the decision, or reasons for it.

The Records of the Synods of Wisconsin, Iowa, Southern Iowa, Upper Missouri, Missouri, Virginia, and North Carolina, were reported as not yet received by the respective Committees.

Reports on the Records of the Synods of New Jersey and Kentucky were postponed, until the judicial cases from those Synods now pending, be decided by this Assembly.

The report by Dr. Bergen on the Records of the Synod of South Carolina, recommending that they be approved, with an exception, was under discussion upon a motion by Dr. Alrich to strike out the exception; when the Assembly was called to the devotional exercises appointed at the morning session. In these exercises, a portion of the Scriptures was read by the Moderator, praise was sung, prayer was offered, and exhortation made, in which Messrs. Bullions, Anderson, L. Merrill Miller, William Clark, and others participated.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer.

FRIDAY Morning, May 24.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Judge Allen.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

The order of the day, the paper moved by Dr. Spring on Wednesday last, was taken up, and Dr. Thomas moved to adopt it. Dr. Hodge proposed a substitute; and on the motion to adopt this paper, the discussion was continued to the time for closing devotional exercises. In these exercises Messrs Cheek, Lawrence, and Waller led the Assembly in prayer.

Adjourned to meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

FRIDAY Afternoon, 4 o'clock.

The order of the day for the election of persons to fill vacancies in the Board of Church Extension was called, and on motion of Judge Allen, as amended by a motion of Mr. Dungan, all the orders of the day for this afternoon to fill vacancies in the various Boards were postponed till Monday afternoon next, and the Stated Clerk was directed to prepare tickets of the various nominations, with such designations of the number to be chosen, and lists given by the Committees distinguished from other nominations made, as may be necessary to guide the members to intelligent voting.

The unfinished business of the morning was then taken up, the paper of Dr. Spring and the substitute moved by Dr. Hodge. The discussion continued to the hour of adjournment.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Moderator.

SATURDAY Morning, May 25.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. McInnis.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

Robert Barber, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Burlington, appeared and was enrolled as an additional Commissioner.

Judge Allen, from the Special Committee on the Association for the Observance of the Sabbath, reported the following paper, which was adopted, viz.

The Assembly having listened with pleasure to the Rev. R. S. Cooke, Secretary of the "Sabbath Committee," of New York City, congratulates that Committee upon the success which, under the prospering and guiding hand of God, has attended its efforts to restore to that city the "civil Sabbath," and rescue that day from desecration and criminal perversion, by the enforcement of proper Sabbath laws, enacted not to coerce the conscience of any, but to protect all in the enjoyment of precious civil rights. As a Christian people the Sabbath belongs to us as of right, and as a part of our heritage, and of our institutions, and is as real and substantial a right as any known to the laws.

The observance of the Christian Sabbath as a day of religious rest ordained of God, is enjoined upon all as a Christian duty; and the observance of one day in seven as a day of rest from labour and secular employments, is a physical necessity imposed by a law of our nature, which thus adds its sanction to the express command of God. As a civil institution the Sabbath is deeply interwoven with the foundations of civil government, and its sanctions are indispensable to the stability and prosperity of a nation. God honours that nation that honours his Sabbath. And may it not be that one reason of the controversy which he now manifestly has with us, is that, although professedly a Christian nation, we have not honoured his day as did our forefathers?

Every practice, therefore, which tends to disturb the peace, good order, and quiet of that day—which tends to dishonour and bring reproach upon it, deprives the labourer of it as a day of rest, or interferes with or hinders the due religious observance of it by Christian people, is not only a sin against God, but an offence against government, and a crime against man, to be prevented or punished by the civil authority.

The duty of the Government to protect the Sabbath, and secure it to all as a civil right, has ever been acknowledged and acted upon by every Christian nation. The Church needs the Sabbath as a day of worship, and in the preservation and extension of its religious influence, as well as a means of grace, and a channel of communicating blessings to the world.

Encouraged, therefore, by what has been accomplished by this local Committee, this Assembly recommend to the churches under its care, and to its ministers and ruling elders, increased watchfulness and zeal in securing the proper observance of the Sabbath, and the enforcement of all laws for its protection and preservation.

W. F. Allen, Chairman.

Dr. Edwards, from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, made a report, which was approved.

At the request of Dr. Hodge, Overture No. 14, respecting the formation of a new Synod, was taken up from the docket, and recommitted to the same Committee.

On motion of Dr. Wines, the orders of the day for this morning were postponed till Tuesday next, in order to proceed with the unfinished business of yesterday—the substitute moved by Dr. Hodge for the paper moved by Dr. Spring. The discussion continued to the time fixed for devotional exercises; and on motion of Mr. Hamill, this unfinished business was made the order of the day for Monday next, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Mr. Dungan, from the Committee on Mileage, reported that there has been paid to the Treasurer, on account of the Commissioner's Fund, the sum of $752.65; that there has been 2,013 miles travelled by the Commissioners who claim mileage in coming to the present Assembly, which will make 3 cents 7 mills per mile to each, and leave a balance of $7.36 in this fund. They therefore recommend that the Trustees of the General Assembly, be directed to draw an order on the Treasurer for $745.29; to be distributed according to this calculation, provided that no member receive more than his expenses to and from the Assembly.

This report was adopted.

Mr. Williamson, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been granted to Messrs. Allen, Holden, Offutt, John Thompson, Josiah Martin, Dickinson, J. W. Clark, and Simpson.

The report was approved.

The Assembly then engaged in the usual exercises of devotion, Dr. Stockton and Judge White leading in prayer.

Adjourned to meet on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

MONDAY Morning, May 27.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Mr. Baker.

The minutes of Saturday were read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Waller, the report of the Committee on Mileage, approved on Saturday last, was recommitted, in order to allow the benefit of its appropriation to certain Commissioners who had failed to hear the notice respecting the limitation of time.

Dr. Studdiford, from the Committee on Systematic Benevolence, made a report, which was accepted.

Dr. Dickson, from the committee of five appointed by the last Assembly to report on this subject "such facts and suggestions as they may deem worthy of attention," also made a report, which was accepted.

A motion was made to adopt both these reports; and the discussion was continued on this motion till the time fixed for the unfinished business of Saturday—on the substitute moved by Dr. Hodge for the paper moved by Dr. Spring—Mr. Waller having the floor.

The discussion continued till the time fixed for retirement to the noon-day prayer-meeting at the Sansom Street Church—when the Assembly adjourned, to meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Mr. Baldwin.

MONDAY Afternoon, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Stryker.

The orders of the day were called—the election of persons to fill vacancies in the different Boards.

On motion of Mr. Lowrie, the persons nominated for the Board of Church

Extension were chosen without ballot, as there were no contrary nominations.

On motion of Dr. Dickson, the Assembly proceeded to elect for all the other Boards at once, inasmuch as tickets printed by order of the Assembly were already in the hands of the members.

Messrs. Motzer, Hopkins, Lawrence, and Gillespie were appointed tellers, and proceeded to collect the ballots.

Dr. Matthews, from the Standing Committee on the Board of Education, submitted the following additional report, which was adopted, viz.

The Committee on the Report of the Board of Education, to whom was referred the Constitution and By-Laws of the Board, report—That they have carefully compared and examined these Rules; but as this Assembly have already devoted a large portion of their time to the consideration of the different Boards; and as the Board of Education have not finally acted upon the Rules; and as the Assembly could not intelligently decide upon them without a close examination; therefore,

Resolved, That the Board of Education be directed to print a sufficient number of copies for the use of the next General Assembly, and the subject be referred to that body for final action.

In regard to the appointment of a second Corresponding Secretary, the Assembly would refer that matter to the decision of the Board, with the advice that, in the judgment of the Assembly, two are not needed at the present time.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the Board of Education be directed to meet on Wednesday at 1 o'clock, in the basement of this church, for the organization of said Board.

Judge Ewing submitted an additional resolution for the instruction of the Board of Education, which was put on the docket.

Dr. Lord, from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, reported the recommendation of the following persons as delegates to Corresponding bodies, viz.

To the General Synod of the Protestant Reformed Dutch Church—the Rev. Dr. W. W. Phillips, of New York.

To the Associate Reformed Synod of New York—the Rev. Dr. Sprole, of New York.

To the General Association of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church—the Rev. Dr. R. B. McMullin, of Tennessee.

To the Associate Reformed Synod of the South—the Rev. Dr. Mitchell, of Alabama.

On motion of Dr. Wines, the report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was taken up and adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully submit to the General Assembly the following Report, as the result of their conferences and deliberations:

They have received and considered the Annual Reports of the Directors and Trustees of the Seminary at Princeton, New Jersey; the Western Seminary at Allegheny, Pennsylvania; and the Seminary at Danville, Kentucky; and also the Report of the Directors of the Seminary of the North-West, at Chicago, Illinois, and the balance-sheet of the Treasurer of the same. The report of the Trustees of the last-named institution was not placed in their hands.

As the above papers will, doubtless, as usual, be printed in extenso in the Appendix to the Minutes, the Committee do not deem it either necessary or expedient to take up the time of the General Assembly in any detailed statement of their contents. A brief recapitulation of the more important points, however, may prove neither uninteresting nor unacceptable to the members of this body.

The Assembly will learn, with gratitude and joy, of the continued prosperity and abundant usefulness of these cherished institutions of the Church.

The whole number of students connected with these four schools of the prophets, during the past year, has been 396; the whole number of new students received, 145; and the whole number graduated, 118;—60 from Princeton, 39 from Allegheny, 8 from Danville, and 11 from Chicago. These are larger numbers, under each specification, in the aggregate, than were ever reached before; which is matter of devout thanksgiving to the great Head of the Church.

The Professors in all the Seminaries reported, have laboriously, faithfully, acceptably, and successfully discharged the duties of their several chairs. The Church has cause to congratulate herself on her choice of men for the important work of teaching and training her candidates for the gospel ministry. High testimony is borne, both by the Boards of Directors and the Committees of Examination, to the piety, diligence, zeal, exemplary deportment, and successful prosecution of their studies, on the part of the students generally.

It cannot but be a subject of the liveliest gratification to the General Assembly, as well as fervent gratitude to God, that increased interest is felt by our students, in the work of Foreign Missions, and that increasing numbers are giving themselves to this noble but self-denying and toilsome service. Princeton reports several of her best graduates as looking to the foreign field, and others as bending their regards to the rising empire of the Pacific; while Allegheny tells of ten or more of the graduating class having given themselves for missionary service in China, India, Central America, and Brazil.

Instances of a noble liberality to the cause of theological education are reported, of which further and more specific mention will be made in one of the resolutions which the Committee will propose to the consideration of the Assembly.

Since the last meeting of the Assembly, the Rev. Drs Paxton and Smith, and the Rev. Wistar C. Hodge, have entered upon the duties of their respective Professorships; the first at the Western, the second at the Danville, and the third at the Princeton Seminary. Dr. Paxton and Mr. Hodge have been duly inaugurated by the services usual upon such occasions. A like ceremony in the case of Dr. Smith was prevented by an unexpected but necessary providential absence from the last meeting of the Board of Directors, for which time the service had been appointed.

But these cheerful pencillings of light are not without an intermixture of saddening shades. Death has stricken down an unusual number of Directors and Trustees, and that of unusually eminent, godly, and venerable men—the Rev. Drs Van Rensselaer, Neill, Murray, Brown, Herron, Edgar, and Butler, of the clergy; and of laymen, the gifted, pious, and lamented Price. What a brilliant harvest of genius, culture, learning, piety, wisdom, and worth, to be gathered in a single year by the grim destroyer!

The Assembly will also learn with sorrow, that the capital funds of the Seminary at Danville, invested to a large extent in the bonds of Missouri, Tennessee, and Kentucky, are at the present time greatly depreciated in their market value, and that upon the question, whether they will continue to yield the usual income, depends the ability of the Board of Trustees to support the Institution. They heartily join in the hope expressed by the Board, that "the Great Head of the Church will, in some way, through the liberality of his people, provide the means for the maintenance of an Institution which has already received so many tokens of the Divine favour."

It cannot but be a still further subject of regret to the Assembly, that the able, accomplished, and efficient Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the Seminary of the North-West—the Rev. N. L. Rice, D. D.—has felt himself called in Providence to resign his chair in that Institution, and to enter upon another field of labour.

The Committee recommend, for the adoption of the General Assembly, the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Annual Reports of the Boards of Directors and Trustees of our Theological Seminaries be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Resolved, 2. That fervent gratitude is due to God for the abundant measure of success accorded to our Seminaries during the past year, for their increasing efficiency and usefulness, for the continued health of professors and students, and for the ability, fidelity, zeal and diligence of all connected with them.

Resolved, 3. That the thanks of this Assembly are due, and they are hereby tendered, to John C. Green, of New York, for the gift of $43,000 to the Seminary at Princeton, to found the "Helena Professorship," and provide a residence for the incumbent of the same; to Robert L. and Alexander Stuart, of New York, for their conveyance to the same Institution of the large and valuable library of the late Professor J. Addison Alexander, D. D.; to W. J. James, of New Jersey, for granting to the Seminary the use of fifty-four distinct works, embracing one hundred and seven volumes, several of them of great rarity and value; to two ladies in New York (who modestly conceal their names) for providing the means of special lectures on Mental and Moral Philosophy, and on Physical Geography, Geology, and Ethnology, by those distinguished philosophers, Dr. Atwater and Professor Guyot; to H. K. Corning, of New York, for the gift of $1000 in aid of the Corning Library of the Seminary of the North-West; to R. Carter & Brothers, of New York, for a donation to the same of one hundred and fifty volumes, and to Dr. N. L. Rice for a donation of seventy-eight volumes out of his private library; to the Board of Publication for liberal grants to all the Seminaries; to sundry other persons (whose names will be found in the Annual Reports) for the gift of books and manuscripts to the various Institutions; and also to numerous ladies in different parts of the country for donations of clothing, to the amount of hundreds of dollars, for the use of the students; also to Jesse L. Williams, Esq., of Fort Wayne, Indiana, for the donation of $2000 to endow the "Susan C. Williams" Scholarship at Allegheny.

Resolved, 4. That, while the Assembly feel sensibly and deplore deeply the loss they have sustained in those devoted friends and prudent counsellors of the Seminaries—Drs. Herron, Edgar, Butler, Neill, Brown, Murray, and Van Rensselaer, and Daniel B. Price, Esq.—they bow in meek submission to the sovereign decree of Heaven, rejoicing that their precious services were for so long a period continued to the Church, and they hereby tender their heartfelt condolence to the families and surviving friends of the illustrious and sainted dead.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly reiterates its recommendation, so often urged in former years, that, despite the troubles and embarrassments of the times, vigorous efforts be put forth, as opportunities may offer, to complete the endowments of such Professorships as still lack the needful amount, and so secure, as far as human means are capable of securing, a permanent income, adequate for all emergencies.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly approves the suggestion of the Directors of Princeton Seminary touching the matter of supplementing, through the benevolent liberality of such as are willing to contribute to such a fund, the two dollars a week paid by the students for board, by allowing the steward fifty cents per week additional.

Resolved, 7. That the resignation of N. L. Rice, D. D, Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the Seminary of the North-West, be, under the circumstances, accepted; and that agreeably to the request of the Directors, another Professor be chosen to fill the vacancy thus created.

Resolved, 8. That, in accordance with the recommendation of the Directors of Princeton Seminary, the Rev. Alexander T. McGill, D. D., be transferred to the chair of Ecclesiastic, Homiletic, and Pastoral Theology.

Resolved, 9. That the name of the Rev. Charles W. Shields, nominated by vote of the Board of Directors, be presented as a suitable candidate for the vacant Professorship of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.

On motion of Mr. Waller, it was made the order of the day for to-morrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock, to elect Professors, according to the recommendation of the Committee.

Nominations were then made. Besides the nomination of Mr. Shields, presented by the Committee, the nomination of the Rev. James C. Moffat, D. D., was made by Mr. Price, for the vacancy in the Seminary at Princeton. The Rev. John M. Krebs, D. D., was nominated by Mr. Robertson, and the Rev. E. C. Wines, D. D., by Dr. Alrich, for the vacancy in the Theological Seminary of the North-West.

The Assembly then engaged in prayer, being led by Dr. Kennedy, at the call of the Moderator.

On motion of Dr. Hornblower, the name of Theodore Litle, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Passaic, was substituted for that of Harvey Law, who has occupied a seat as Commissioner from that Presbytery since the fourth day of our sessions.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet this evening at 8 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Dr. Edwards.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Swan.

The unfinished business of the afternoon was resumed.

Dr. Hodge asked and obtained leave to withdraw the substitute he had offered for the paper of Dr. Spring.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Murray.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Hamill, it was ordered, that the Commissioners who were absent from the evening session when the yeas and nays were recorded, on the motion of Dr. Hodge to lay on the table the business before the Assembly, on the paper of Dr. Spring and substitute of Dr. Wines, be allowed now to have their names put on the record.

On motion of Mr. Josiah D. Smith, as amended by motion of Dr. Hall, the orders of the day were postponed, in order to take up the unfinished business of last evening, so far as to refer it to a Special Committee, with instruction to report this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The unfinished business on Judicial Case No. 2 was then taken up, the question being on the motion of Dr. Monfort to dismiss the complaint. The discussion continued till the hour for devotional exercises, when the Assembly engaged for half an hour in singing and prayer; being led in prayer by Messrs. Aitken, Robertson, and Motzer; and a portion of the Scriptures being read by the Moderator.

Adjourned to meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. McPhail.

On motion of Mr. Waller, the order of the day for the election of Professors in the Theological Seminaries reporting vacancies, was taken up, and ballots were prepared for a Professor in Princeton; Messrs. McInnis, Lawrence, Price, and Rutherford, being appointed tellers by the Moderator.

Dr. Wines asked to have his name withdrawn from the nomination for a Professor in the Seminary of the North-West, which was granted.

It was then on motion,

Resolved, That the election be held viva voce; and the Rev. John M. Krebs, of New York, was unanimously chosen Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the Theological Seminary of the North-West.

On motion of Dr. Wines, the title of the vacant Professorship in the Seminary at Princeton was made "Church History," instead of "Biblical and Ecclesiastical History."

On motion of Dr. McPhail, it was ordered that committees be appointed, of one minister and one ruling elder each, to inform the brethren chosen, of their election.

On motion of Dr. Dickson, the salary of the Professors elect, at Princeton and Chicago respectively, be the same as that of the other Professors in the same Institution.

Mr. Dungan, from the Committee on Mileage, reported back the ratio of allowance to Commissioners claiming mileage, three cents and six mills per mile, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of $9.47.

This report was adopted.

Dr. Musgrave, from the Committee appointed in the morning, on the papers of Dr. Spring and others, submitted a report for the majority of the Committee, numbering eight of the nine.

This report is as follows, viz.

Gratefully acknowledging the distinguished bounty and care of Almighty God towards this favoured land, and also recognizing our obligation to submit to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, this General Assembly adopts the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That in view of the present agitated and unhappy condition of this country, Monday, the first day of July next, be hereby set apart as a day of prayer throughout our bounds, and that on that day ministers and people are called upon humbly to confess and bewail our national sins, to offer our thanks to the Father of lights for his abundant and undeserved goodness to us as a nation, to seek his guidance and blessing upon our rulers and their counsels, as well as upon the Congress then about to assemble, and to implore Him, in the name of Jesus Christ, the Great High Priest of the Christian profession, to turn away his anger from us, and speedily restore to us the blessings of a safe and honourable peace.

Resolved, 2. That the members of this General Assembly, in the spirit of that Christian patriotism which the Scriptures enjoin, and which has always characterized this Church, do hereby acknowledge and declare their obligation, so far as in them lies, to maintain the Constitution of these United States in the full exercise of all its legitimate powers, to preserve our beloved Union unimpaired, and to restore its inestimable blessings to every portion of the land.

Resolved, 3. That in the present distracted state of the country, this Assembly, representing the whole Church, feel bound to abstain from any further declaration, in which all our ministers and members faithful to the Constitution and Standards of the Church, might not be able conscientiously and safely to join, and therefore, out of a regard as well to the interests of our beloved country, as to those of the Church, the Assembly adopts this Minute as its deliverance upon this subject.

Dr. Anderson offered a minority report, consisting of Dr. Spring's resolution, with a slight alteration.

Both reports were accepted.

A motion was made to adopt that of the majority; and on this motion the discussion continued till the hour of adjournment.

The tellers to count the ballots in the election for Professor at Princeton reported that one hundred and forty-seven votes had been cast for the Rev. James C. Moffat, D. D., and seventy-one had been cast for the Rev. Charles W. Shields. Dr. Moffat was accordingly declared by the Moderator as duly elected Professor of Church History in the Theological Seminary at Princeton.

Dr. McPhail and Judge Ryerson were appointed a Committee to inform him of his election.

Dr. Wines and Mr. C. A. Spring were appointed a Committee to inform Dr. Krebs of his election to the Seminary of the North-West.

On motion, it was made the first order of the day for to-morrow afternoon, to elect persons to fill the vacancies in the Boards of Directors of the different Seminaries, and Trustees in the Western Theological Seminary.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Mr. Hamill.

WEDNESDAY Morning, May 29.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Mr. Williamson, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave of absence had been granted to Drs. Spring and Donaldson, and Messrs. Alexander, Chesnut, Humphrey, Cheek, Wilkin, William Clark, Pedan, Roberts, A. Wilson, Ker, Rankin, and Tully.

The report was approved.

Mr. Macalester, from the Committee on Finance, submitted a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Finance Committee, to whom was referred the accounts of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, makes the following report:

That they have examined the report of the Treasurer, and compared the statements therein presented, with the books kept by him, and find them correct.

The amount received by the Treasurer, from all sources, during the last financial year, viz. from May 1, 1860, to May 1, 1861, was $23,046.72, which added to balance in his hands from previous year, viz. $5217.18, makes the total receipts for the year	$28,263.90
The expenditures during the year were . . .	24,479.58
Leaving a balance in his hands of	$3,784.32

The Report of the Treasurer embraces the following statements:

No. 1. Abstract of receipts and expenditures.

2. Balance sheet from Ledger.

3. The items which compose the cash balance on hand.

4. Statement of income derived from bonds and mortgages.

5. Statement of Permanent Funds, showing a balance uninvested of $143.70. Of this fund, one mortgage of $8000 has been paid in during the year, and the amount invested in two mortgages of $4000 each.

No. 6. Tabular statement of investments held by the Assembly amounting to $115,924.34. Included in this amount are,

100	shares	Planters Bank of Mississippi, valued at	$100 00
200	"	Agricultural do. do.	200 00
10	"	Grand Gulf Rail Road, . . .	15 00
11	"	Bank of the United States, . .	37 12
4	"	Union Canal Company of Pennsylvania,	56 00
		Amounting together to	$408 12

These stocks are without value, and the Committee recommend that they be so reported in subsequent statements, and that the accounts which have now credit for the aforesaid amount, be charged with the proportionate sums belonging to each.

The Committee suggest to the Assembly the following resolution:

Resolved, That this report be adopted, and that the Treasurer be directed to carry out the recommendation of the Committee in regard to the worthless stocks which have been referred to; and that the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

Dr. Jacobus obtained leave to take from the docket, for the further consideration of the Judicial Committee, Judicial Case No. 4, the Complaint and Appeal of the Presbytery of Passaic against the Synod of New Jersey.

The unfinished business on the report of Dr. Musgrave, from the majority of the Special Committee on the State of the Country, was resumed; the question being on adopting the report of the majority.

On motion of Dr. Yeomans, as amended by motion of Mr. Henry, it was Resolved, That the final vote on this business shall be taken this afternoon at 6 o'clock.

Discussion was then continued to the time for devotional exercises.

In reading the Scriptures, singing, and prayer, the Assembly employed the usual half hour at the close of the morning session; being led in prayer by Messrs. Tully, Semple, and Mutchmore; and then adjourned to meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The minority report of Dr. Anderson was then taken up; an amendment offered by Dr. Edwards was carried, making the report as follows:

Gratefully acknowledging the distinguished bounty and care of Almighty God toward this favoured land, and also recognizing our obligations to submit to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, this General Assembly adopt the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That in view of the present agitated and unhappy condition of this country, the first day of July next be hereby set apart as a day of prayer throughout our bounds; and that on this day ministers and people are called on humbly to confess and bewail our national sins; to offer our thanks to the Father of light for his abundant and undeserved goodness towards us as a nation; to seek his guidance and blessing upon our rulers, and their counsels, as well as on the Congress of the United States about to assemble; and to implore him, in the name of Jesus Christ, the great High Priest of the Christian profession, to turn away his anger from us, and speedily restore to us the blessings of an honourable peace.

Resolved, 2. That this General Assembly, in the spirit of that Christian patriotism which the Scriptures enjoin, and which has always characterized this Church, do hereby acknowledge and declare our obligations to promote and perpetuate, so far as in us lies, the integrity of these United States, and to strengthen, uphold, and encourage, the Federal Government in the exercise of all its functions under our noble Constitution: and to this Constitution in all its provisions, requirements, and principles, we profess our unabated loyalty.

And to avoid all misconception, the Assembly declare that by the terms "Federal Government," as here used, is not meant any particular administration, or the peculiar opinions of any particular party, but that central administration, which being at any time appointed and inaugurated according to the forms prescribed in the Constitution of the United States, is the visible representative of our national existence.

This paper was adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Wm. Clark, Kellogg, Bullions, Cochran, L. M. Dr. Hodge and others gave notice that they protested against this action of the Assembly for reasons to be given. Mr. Lloyd wished his dissent to be marked.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Dr. Musgrave.

THURSDAY Morning, May 30.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Condit.

The minutes of yesterday were read, amended, and approved.

Mr. Ogden obtained leave to have his vote recorded against the adoption of the minority report, yesterday.

Messrs. Slagle and McNair obtained leave to change their votes on the report of the majority.

Dr. Dickson moved the adoption of the following paper, viz.

As it is desirable to enlist, as largely as possible, the interest of our churches in the great objects of benevolence, and as the location of our Boards in different cities has a tendency to secure this end, therefore,

Resolved, That the Assembly remove the Board of Education to the city of Baltimore.

Mr. Vaill moved to amend by substituting "Pittsburg" for "Baltimore."

Mr. Waller moved to refer the subject to the next General Assembly, and accepted for his motion the following paper of Mr. Robertson:

Resolved, That a Committee of three ministers and three ruling elders be appointed by this Assembly to take into consideration the expediency and desirableness of removing the offices of the Boards of Domestic Missions, Education, and Publication, from the city of Philadelphia to some other localities, and if, in their judgment, such removals would be for the best interests of the Church, then to inquire what changes in the organization of these Boards are necessary in order to its accomplishment, and also whether, in that case, the discontinuance of the Executive Committee of the Board of Domestic Missions at Louisville would not be advisable, and to report to the next General Assembly.

On motion of Mr. Mutchmore, the whole subject was indefinitely postponed.

The unfinished business, on the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication, was taken up, and discussed till the time arrived for devotional exercises.

On motion of Mr. Henry, these were postponed in order to take the final vote on this report.

The first resolution was read.

Dr. Musgrave moved to amend by striking out the words "economy and efficiency."

This motion was lost by a vote of 31 to 85; and the resolution was adopted.

The second, third, and fourth resolutions were unanimously adopted.

When the fifth was read, Dr. Edwards moved to substitute for it the following, viz.

Resolved, 5th. The Assembly renews its expression of interest in the great work of colportage; is pleased to learn that so many more colporteurs have been employed, and so much larger an amount of labour accomplished than in any former year; and it highly approves of the effort of the Board to prosecute and extend its colportage operations on the Pacific coast. But in view of the amount of capital now in the hands of the Board, and the importance of reducing the number of collections taken up in our churches, it is recommended to the Board to undertake, out of its own funds, the entire management of this department of the work.

This motion was lost, and that of the Committee was adopted.

Dr. Edwards then moved, as an additional resolution, the following:

Resolved, 6th. That the Board be directed to practice strict economy in the management of their business, and that in the annual report to the Assembly, they hereafter include their Balance Sheet.

This resolution was laid on the table, and the whole report of the Committee was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, beg leave to report:

That having carefully examined the Report of the Board, together with the minutes of the Board, the minutes of its Executive Committee, and other documents submitted, they would now respectfully submit the following resolutions to the Assembly for its adoption:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly recognizes in its Board of Publication an agency of incalculable value and importance for spreading abroad a knowledge of the pure truths of God's holy word, as exhibited in the standards and teachings of our own beloved Church; and that the Assembly approves of the zeal, fidelity, economy, and efficieney with which the affairs of the Board have been conducted during the past year.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly unites with the Board in hereby recording its sense of the loss sustained by the Church in the death of the late Joseph P. Engles, who was for nearly nineteen years the Publishing Agent of the Board, and in expressing its sense of the diligence, integrity, and fidelity with which he had so long served the Church in that office.

Resolved, 3. The Assembly is gratified to learn that, in accordance with its former recommendations, the Board continues to issue works suitable for juvenile reading and for Sabbath-school libraries. Also that the Sabbath-School Visitor continues to extend in circulation and usefulness. And it is hereby urged upon pastors, sessions, Sabbath-school superintendents, and teachers, to introduce these books and the Visitor into their respective schools.

Resolved, 4. As the Board continues to receive numerous applications for donations of books through its Distribution Fund, the Assembly would again earnestly recommend to benevolent individuals to remember that fund in their benefactions; and as a large proportion of the applications are from needy and mission Sabbath-schools, the Assembly would especially recommend to the Sabbath-schools throughout the Church to contribute a suitable proportion of their gifts to Christ's cause through this Distribution Fund.

Resolved, 5. The Assembly is pleased to learn that so many more colporteurs have been employed, and so much larger an amount of labour accomplished than in any former year. It highly approves of the effort of the Board to prosecute and extend its colportage operations on the Pacific coast; and it would reiterate its recommendation of former years that all the churches should help to sustain this good work by their prayers and their regular contributions.

On motion, it was made the first order of the day for this afternoon to finish the business of review, in the reports on Synodical Records.

It was also moved and carried, that the Records of the Synod of South Carolina be recommitted to the same Committee, with instructions to report at 4 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly then adjourned.

Closed with prayer by Mr. Snowden.

THURSDAY Afternoon, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. E. B. Miller.

The order of the day was called, the unfinished business on the reports on Synodical Records.

Dr. Bergen, from the Committee on the Records of the Synod of South Carolina, reported, recommending the approval of the same, with exceptions.

These exceptions, after the second was amended on motion of Dr. Imbrie, and the third was superseded by a substitute of Dr. Hodge, were adopted, as follows:

1st. That these minutes have not been submitted for review since the year 1857.

2d. That on page 140 there is an assertion in relation to the act of 1818 on slavery, that it has "been virtually rescinded." The Assembly makes this exception, inasmuch as the General Assembly has already in 1846 decided to the contrary; on which deliverance all the members from the South then in the Assembly voted in the affirmative.

3d. The Assembly must not be understood as endorsing or approving the action of the Synod on pp. 141, 142, in reference to the political course of the State of South Carolina.

An amendment to the second exception, moved by Dr. Hall, in these words, "inasmuch as it is inexpedient for the judicatories of the Church to give political deliverances," was lost by a vote of 107 to 58.

The Records of the Synod of Mississippi, and St. Paul, were approved without exception.

The Records of the Synods of Georgia, Alabama, Memphis, Arkansas, Texas, the Pacific, and Northern India, were reported as not having been received by the respective Committees.

The unfinished business on Judicial Case No. 2 was then taken up, the Protest and Complaint of R. J. Breckinridge and others, against the Synod of Kentucky; and on motion, it was Resolved, That inasmuch as there is now no sufficient time to discuss the subject, the case be referred to the next General Assembly.

Mr. Hanson, from the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Kentucky, then moved that these Records be approved, with the understanding that on the subject of this Protest and Complaint the General Assembly expresses no opinion.

Protests were read by Dr. Hall for himself, Mr. Wells for himself and Mr. Childs, Dr. Hodge for himself and many others. A dissent with reasons was read by Mr. Lloyd; and another by Dr. Stockton for himself and Dr. Alrich, against the action of the Assembly yesterday, in adopting the minority report on the state of the country. The protest of Messrs. Wells and Childs being against the refusal to divide the vote on the resolutions of the majority report, and also the minority report.

On motion of Mr. Waller, these protests were admitted to record, and a Committee was appointed to answer them. Drs. Thomas, Lord, and Anderson, ministers; and Messrs. J. L. Williams, and Nathaniel Ewing, ruling elders, were appointed this Committee.

On motion of Dr. Imbrie, it was made the first order of the day for to-morrow morning, to hear the Narrative on the State of Religion.

Mr. Williamson, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been given to Messrs. John Johnston, Wilson, Hamilton, Moore, Dickinson, Miller, Church, Stewart, Pedan, McPhail, Lord, Hoyte, White, Hickman, and Conn.

The report was approved.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet this evening at 8 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Dr. Jacobus.

THURSDAY Evening, 8 o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Mr. George W. Lane.

A communication was read from Samuel Agnew, Esq., asking that a time be appointed for hearing the Rev. Dr. Dales, in behalf of the Presbyterian Historical Society, for a few minutes.

On motion, the request was granted, and it was made the second order of the day for to-morrow morning to hear Dr. Dales for ten minutes.

Mr. Lindsley, from the Special Committee on Periodicals, presented a report, which was amended, and adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Periodicals beg leave to report progress to the General Assembly, and ask for further instructions.

After repeated consultations in Committee, and numerous inquiries proposed by members of Committee to competent persons, no doubt can be longer entertained respecting the importance of an improved organ of communication between the General Assembly and its numerous congregations. On this point the Committee could discover no difference of opinion. But every plan proposed encountered obstacles. Although the sum of these difficulties by no means appeared to be insurmountable, yet the Committee soon became convinced that it was impracticable to attempt to reach a satisfactory conclusion during the present session of the Assembly. And they therefore propose the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on the Assembly's Periodicals have leave to continue their deliberations after the adjournment of this body; and report to the next General Assembly.

Connected with this resolution, it was ordered, on motion, that three additional members to this Committee be appointed by the Moderator.

Judicial Case No. 6 was taken up—the appeal of T. F. Worrall against the Synod of Illinois. The report of the Committee was read.

After the Moderator had given the usual charge to the members, on entering upon judicial business, it was found that the Records of the Synod were not in the house. Whereupon the case was postponed, in order to take up

Judicial Case No. 4, Complaint and Appeal of the Presbytery of Passaic against the Synod of New Jersey, in the case of Wm. B. Guild. The report of the Committee was read, and after some discussion respecting the original parties in the case,

The Assembly adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Mr. Annan.

FRIDAY Morning, May 31.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Barber of Northumberland.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

Mr. Ogden asked leave to enter a dissent from the refusal of the Assembly to amend the record, which was granted.

The dissent, subsequently read, is as follows, viz.

Exception was taken to the Records of the Synod of South Carolina; because that Synod had said the deliverance of the Assembly of 1818, was "virtually rescinded." This exception was sustained by the Assembly for the following reason: "Inasmuch as the Assembly of 1846 had decided to the contrary." The motion to correct the minutes, so as to express the the meaning and intent of the exception, as explained by the mover, (Dr. Imbrie) was made by the Rev. J. M. Brown, of Virginia, by inserting the following: "Inasmuch as the Assembly of 1846 has decided that the deliverance of 1845 is not in conflict with that of 1818." My reasons for dissenting from the action of this Assembly, in rejecting this correction, and refusing to strike out the word "contrary," are, 1st. That although not so intended by the mover, the word "contrary" may, by some, be construed as re-enacting the deliverance of 1818. And 2d. Because it may be understood as putting an interpretation on these words "virtually rescinded," which I am satisfied the Synod of South Carolina did not intend, viz. that they understand and affirm, that the deliverance of 1818 was fully and formally rescinded, whereas, in our judgment, they only could mean, that the deliverance of 1845 was a later and fuller deliverance, and in so far as the words are different, modify and explain the deliverance of 1818.

THOMAS A. OGDEN.

Mr. McInnis also gave notice that he dissented for reasons to be given.

Mr. Hamill, for himself and others, read a dissent, with reasons, from the action of the Assembly on Wednesday last, upon the state of the country.

On motion, this paper, as well as the dissents of others already read, were admitted to record.

Dr. Yeomans, from the Committee of Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 6, Memorial of Rev. Joseph Warren, D. D., claiming compensation for services to the Seminary of the North-West.

The Committee recommend that this paper be referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

Adopted.

Overture No. 12, a minute of the Board of Domestic Missions, communicated to the Assembly against the memorial of the Synod of Pittsburgh, as to two Secretaries or one.

The Committee recommend that this paper be referred to the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions.

Adopted.

Overture No. 17, from James Latta and others, on the hasty and irregular dissolution of the pastoral relation.

The Committee consider the subject as one of very great importance, but in view of the unusual press of business on the present Assembly, which will not allow the time for such attention to the subject as its importance demands, the Committee are constrained to recommend, that it be commended to the earnest attention of the next Assembly.

Adopted.

Overture No. 16, from the Presbytery of St. Paul, on a week of prayer in behalf of missions, to be designated by the Assembly.

The Committee recommend that the churches be requested to observe the week, from the 5th to the 11th of January, 1862, inclusive, as a season of special prayer for the prosperity of the work of Christian missions throughout the world.

Adopted.

Overture No. 15, a memorial from the Presbytery of Chillicothe, in relation to an alleged abandonment of the act of 1818, on the subject of slavery.

The Committee recommend that the memorialists be referred to all the deliverances of the General Assembly on this subject, from 1818 to the present time.

Adopted.

Overture No. 19, relating to the formation of the new Synod already reported in Overture No. 14, and taken back from the docket by the Committee.

This report was put on the docket.

Mr. Childs offered a resolution relating to the statistical reports of the Board of Domestic Missions; which was also put on the docket.

The Moderator announced as additional members of the Committee on Periodicals, Drs. Imbrie, Hornblower, and Mr. Egbert Marsh.

The Narrative on the State of Religion was then reported by Dr. Imbrie, and adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

Dr. S. J. Baird, in place of Dr. Dales, appeared for the Presbyterian Historical Society, and addressed the Assembly ten minutes.

After which, on motion, the Assembly expressed great gratification with the statements made respecting the objects and value of this Society, and recommend it to the favour of the churches.

Dr. Thomas, from the Committee appointed to answer the protests against the action of the Assembly on the reports of the Committee upon the State of the Country, made a report, which was adopted as the mind of the majority in this Assembly; and all the papers ordered to be recorded on this subject are as follows:

Dissent of Drs. Stockton and Alrich.

The undersigned dissent from the action of this General Assembly, by which the report of the minority of the Committee on the state of the country was adopted, and respectfully ask to have their reasons entered on the records. These reasons are the following, viz.

1. The undersigned voted to adopt the report of the majority of the Committee on the state of the country, and for the amendment offered to said report by Dr. Musgrave. This vote declared their loyalty to the Federal Government in the fullest and most unequivocal manner.

2. This report which they voted to adopt was, moreover, intended and adapted, in their opinion, in the best manner then before the House, to disembarrass loyal Presbyterians in the Southern States, to preserve the integrity of the Presbyterian Church, and, as a consequence, to secure the best interests of our whole country.

Signed, JOHN STOCKTON,
W. P. ALRICH.

Dissent of Mr. Lloyd.

In respectfully presenting his dissent from the action of the Assembly on the resolutions passed by it touching the state of the country, he would briefly state,

First, That while he does most sincerely rejoice in, and fully sympathize with the feeling of loyalty and devotion to the Federal Constitution and Government, expressed in the resolutions referred to; and while he sees with deepest solicitude and most hearty approval the determination and the efforts of the Federal Government, and the spontaneous and patriotic uprising of the people to suppress the revolution now attempted by several States of the Union, under the name of Secession, though deploring in unfeigned sorrow the necessity for any such action on the part of the Government to maintain and perpetuate the Constitution and the Union; yet he dissents from the action of this Assembly in the resolutions alluded to,

1. Because, in his opinion, the action of the Assembly was not necessary to vindicate its own loyalty, or that of the Church it represents, Presbyterianism and patriotism in fullest devotion to the Constitution and the Union being almost synonymous terms on the page of our history.

2. Because no error in doctrine or immorality in practice on the part of any church, Presbytery, or Synod, demands such action; nor was such error or immorality presented for, or defined by, the decision of the Assembly in the action dissented from.

3. Because the action of the Assembly renders the condition of brethren and churches in the unhappily disaffected States of this Union one of painfully increased difficulty, seeming at least to make their loyalty and obedience to the Church of their choice, at least in this behest of the Assembly, utterly inconsistent with their submission to the laws of the States of which they are citizens. Their usefulness, their comfort, and their personal safety are thereby unnecessarily endangered.

4. Because, for the above reasons, and others that might but need not be specified, the action of the Assembly is calculated to increase our political difficulties, add unnecessarily to the causes of Southern alienation and dissatisfaction, and thereby render more nearly hopeless the patriotic wishes and the efforts of the Administration to restore the now endangered Union in the bonds of peace.

Finally, because it renders if not very probable, at least painfully possible, the disruption and division of the Church we love, and which we represent; an event that must affect most disastrously every interest of the kingdom of Christ in this land, and every interest of that country which we love even more than we love our lives, and making more uncertain the continuance of that Government and Union which are the hope of the world.

Because the action of the Assembly has, or seems to have, all these effects or tendencies, and is therefore, if even among the things lawful, yet not expedient, he most sincerely, but most respectfully, presents this dissent from it, and asks to have it entered on the minutes of the Assembly.

J. P. Lloyd.

Dissent of Mr. Hamill.

The undersigned, a member of the General Assembly, deems it his duty respectfully to dissent from a decision of the Assembly, of May 29, 1861, in relation to the state of the country, for the following reasons:

1. The introduction of the subject into our Assembly at all, was undesirable, unnecessary, and calculated to create division.

2. The history of the Presbyterian Church bears ample testimony to her attachment to the Constitution, laws, and government of the United States, so that no new utterance on this subject was needed.

3. In his civil relations, where this subject properly belongs, he has borne full testimony to his high appreciation of the Constitution, laws, and government under which we live, and has made and continues to make daily prayer for the preservation, integrity, and perpetuity of our beloved Union.

4. The Presbyterian Church extends over the nation; and in this Assembly there are many excellent brethren, some of whom are present with us at great sacrifice and peril, whose positions at home, owing to the distracted state of the country, are greatly embarrassed by this action of the General Assembly.

For these reasons, the undersigned desires respectfully to record his dissent from the action of the General Assembly, above referred to.

Samuel M. Hamill.

Protest of Messrs. Wells and Childs.

The undersigned respectfully protest against the decision of the Assembly, refusing to them the privilege of recording their votes in favour of the first resolution of the majority report, and the first of the minority report, on the state of the country, and against the other resolutions of the same reports, for the following reasons:

1. Because, while the subject was under discussion, we were led to expect, in accordance with the rules which up to that time had been tacitly recognized as governing this Assembly, and also in reply to a direct inquiry on the subject, that a division of the question would be allowed.

2. We have not asked to be excused from voting; but as the vote is now recorded, our names do not appear on the record, as they should.

3. We believe it to be our duty to record our names in favour of the deliverance of the Assembly appointing a day of prayer, by the first resolution of the majority report, and the first of the minority report, and against all other action on the subject.

John D. Wells.
Thomas S. Childs.

Protest of Dr. Hall.

The undersigned most solemnly, yet respectfully, protests against the adoption by this Assembly, of the second resolution of the minority report of the Committee on the present State of the Country, not because I am opposed to the patriotic sentiments therein expressed, for I recognize it to be my duty, as a citizen of the United States, especially urgent in this time of our country's peril, to do all in my power to sustain the Government in all its constitutional efforts to suppress rebellion against its authority, and to preserve the integrity of the Union. But I hold it to be made the duty of the Assembly by the Constitution of the Church, to abstain from all political deliverances, and to confine itself exclusively to ecclesiastical action. The resolution referred to might be adopted, with a slight verbal alteration, by an assembly of patriotic citizens, or by a political convention, but it is in form unbecoming the spiritual character and functions of a court of the Lord Jesus Christ. If in the judgment of this court the present state of the country demands its action, that action should have direct reference to the church which it represents, in order to guard its members against the sin of rebellion.

The following, in my view, embodies the spirit of the resolution, against the passage of which I protest, in an ecclesiastical form, and should have been adopted by the Assembly, if in its judgment it is wise, and for the edification of the Church at this time, to give a deliverance on the subject.

Whereas, Many ministers, elders, and members, of the Presbyterian Church, which this Assembly represents, are, in the providence of God, placed in circumstances of peculiar temptation, by reason of the present state of the country, to commit the sin of rebellion against the constitutional authority of the United States, therefore we affectionately and earnestly warn them to resist this temptation, and to prove themselves loyal to the Union. And if any in our communion are in rebellion against the Government in the exercise of its legitimate constitutional functions, we remind them of the great sin of which they are guilty, and warn them of the necessity which their rebellion, if persisted in, imposes upon the judicatories of the Church, to deal with them according to the word of God, and the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Philadelphia, May 30, 1861. A. G. Hall.

Protest of Dr. Hodge and others.

We, the undersigned, respectfully protest against the action of the General Assembly, in adopting the minority report of the Committee on the State of the Country.

We make this protest, not because we do not acknowledge loyalty to our country to be a moral and religious duty, according to the word of God, which requires us to be subject to the powers that be; nor because we deny the right of the Assembly to enjoin that, and all other like duties, on the ministers and churches under its care; but because we deny the right of the General Assembly to decide the political question, to what government the allegiance of Presbyterians as citizens is due, and its right to make that decision a condition of membership in our Church.

That the paper adopted by the Assembly does decide the political question just stated, is in our judgment undeniable. It asserts not only the loyalty of this body to the Constitution and the Union, but it promises in the name of all the churches and ministers whom it represents, to do all that in them lies to "strengthen, uphold, and encourage the Federal Government." It is, however, a notorious fact, that many of our ministers and members conscientiously believe that the allegiance of the citizens of this country is primarily due to the States to which they respectively belong; and, therefore, that when any State renounces its connection with the United States, and its allegiance to the Constitution, the citizens of that State are bound by the laws of God to continue loyal to their State, and obedient to its laws. The paper adopted by the Assembly virtually declares, on the other hand, that the allegiance of the citizen is due to the United States; anything in the Constitution, or ordinances, or laws of the several States to the contrary notwithstanding.

It is not the loyalty of the members constituting this Assembly, nor of our churches and ministers in any one portion of our country that is thus asserted, but the loyalty of the whole Presbyterian Church, North and South, East and West.

Allegiance to the Federal Government is recognized or declared to be the duty of all the churches and ministers represented in this body. In adopting this paper, therefore, the Assembly does decide the great political question which agitates and divides the country. The question is, whether the allegiance of our citizens is primarily to the State or to the Union. However clear our own convictions of the correctness of this decision may be, or however deeply we may be impressed with its importance, yet it is not a question which this Assembly has the right to decide.

A man may conscientiously believe that he owes allegiance to one government or another, and yet possess all the qualifications which the word of God or the standards of the Church authorize us to demand in our members or ministers. As this General Assembly represents the whole Church, the acts and deliverances of this Assembly become the acts and deliverances of the Church. It is this consideration that gives to the action of this Assembly in this case all its importance, either in our own view or in the view of others.

It is the allegiance of the Old-school Presbyterian Church to the Constitution, the Union, and the Federal Government, which this paper is intended to profess and proclaim. It does, therefore, of necessity, decide the political question which agitates the country. It pronounces or assumes a particular interpretation of the Constitution. This is a matter clearly beyond the jurisdiction of the Assembly.

That the action of the Assembly in the premises does not only decide the political question referred to, but makes that decision a term of membership in our Church, is no less clear. It is not analogous to the recommendation of a religious or benevolent institution, which our members may regard or not at pleasure; but it puts into the mouths of all represented in this body, a declaration of loyalty and allegiance to the Union and to the Federal Government. But such a declaration, made by our members residing in what are called the seceding States, is treasonable. Presbyterians under the jurisdiction of those States, cannot, therefore, make that declaration. They are consequently forced to choose between allegiance to their States and allegiance to the Church.

The General Assembly in thus deciding a political question, and in making that decision practically a condition of membership to the Church, has, in our judgment, violated the Constitution of the Church, and usurped the prerogative of its Divine Master.

We protest loudly against the action of the Assembly, because it is a departure from all its previous actions.

The General Assembly has always acted on the principle that the Church has no right to make anything a condition of Christian or ministerial fellowship, which is not enjoined or required in the Scriptures and the Standards of the Church.

We have, at one time, resisted the popular demand to make total abstinence from intoxicating liquors a term of membership. At another time, the holding of slaves. In firmly resisting these unscriptural demands, we have preserved the integrity and unity of the Church, made it the great conservative body of truth, moderation, and liberty of conscience in our country. The Assembly have now descended from this high position, in making a political opinion a particular theory of the Constitution, however correct and important that theory may be, the condition of membership in our body, and thus, we fear, endangered the unity of the Church.

In the third place, we protest, because we regard the action of the Assembly as altogether unnecessary and uncalled for. It was required neither to instruct nor excite our brethren in the Northern States. It was not needed as a vindication of the loyalty of the North.

Old-school Presbyterians everywhere out of the so-called seceding States, have openly avowed and conspicuously displayed their allegiance to the Constitution and the Government, and that in many cases at great cost and peril. Nor was such action required by our duty to the country. We are fully persuaded that we best promote the interests of the country by preserving the integrity and unity of the Church.

We regard this action of the Assembly, therefore, as a great national calamity, as well as the most disastrous to the interests of our Church which has marked its history.

We protest, fourthly, because we regard the action of the Assembly as unjust and cruel in its bearing on our Southern brethren. It was, in our judgment, unfair to entertain and decide such a momentous question when the great majority of our Southern Presbyteries were, from necessity, unrepresented in this body. And it is, in our judgment, a violation of the law of love to adopt an act which must expose the Southern churches that remain in connection with our Church, to suspicion, to loss of property, to personal danger, and which tends to destroy their usefulness in their appointed fields of labour.

And, finally, we protest, because we believe the act of the Assembly will not only diminish the resources of the Church, but greatly weaken its power for good, and expose it to the danger of being carried away more and more from its true principles by a worldly or fanatical spirit.

The Committee appointed to answer the protests of Dr. Hodge and others, respectfully present the following draft:

Answer, &c.

The action of the General Assembly, in reference to which these protests are offered, embraces two resolutions, against the former of which no objection is alleged. The whole stress of the protestation is directed upon the following sentence in the second resolution: "Resolved, That this General Assembly, in the spirit of that Christian patriotism which the Scriptures enjoin, and which has always characterized this Church, do hereby acknowledge and declare our obligation to promote and perpetuate, so far as in us lies, the integrity of these United States; and to strengthen, uphold, and encourage the Federal Government in the exercise of all its functions under our noble Constitution; and to this Constitution, in all its provisions, requirements, and principles, we profess our unabated loyalty."

The first and main ground of protest against the adoption of this resolution, is, that the General Assembly has no right to decide purely political questions; that the question whether the allegiance of American citizens is due primarily and eminently to the State, or to the Union, is purely political, of the gravest character, dependent upon constitutional theories and interpretations, respecting which various opinions prevail in different sections of our country; that the action of the Assembly virtually determines this vexed question, decides to what government the allegiance of Presbyterians, as citizens, is due, and makes that decision a term of communion.

That the action of the Assembly has political as well as moral bearings, is readily admitted. So had the decision of our Divine Master, when he said to the Pharisees and Herodians, "Render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's," Mark xii. 17; a decision still binding upon all men, and underlying this very act of the Assembly. The payment of the required tax was both a moral and a political duty.

"There are occasions," says the author of an able article on "The State of the Country," in the January number of the Princeton Review, "there are occasions when political questions rise into the sphere of morals and religion; when the rule of political action is to be sought, not in consideration of State policy, but in the law of God. . . . . When the question to be decided turns on moral principles; when reason, conscience, and the religious sentiment are to be addressed, it is the privilege and duty of all who have access in any way to the public ear, to endeavour to allay unholy feeling, and to bring truth to bear on the minds of their fellow-citizens." The General Assembly heartily approve these principles, and doubt not that if ever there was an occasion when political questions rose into the sphere of morals and religion, the present circumstances of our beloved country are of that character.

The protestants "deny the right of the General Assembly to decide to what government the allegiance of Presbyterians, as citizens, is due." Strictly speaking, the Assembly has made no such decision. They have said nothing respecting the allegiance of the subjects of any foreign power, or that of the members of our mission churches in India, China, or elsewhere, who may hold connection with our denomination. The action complained of relates solely to American Presbyterians, citizens of these United States.

Even with regard to them, the Assembly has not determined, as between conflicting governments, to which our allegiance is due We are the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Such is the distinctive name, ecclesiastical and legal, under which we have chosen to be known by our sister churches and by the world. Our organization as a General Assembly was cotemporaneous with that of our Federal Government. In the seventy-four years of our existence, Presbyterians have known but one supreme government, one nationality, within our wide-spread territory. We know no other now. History tells of none. The Federal Government acknowledges none No nation on earth recognizes the existence of two independent sovereignties within these United States. What Divine Providence may intend for us hereafter—what curse of rival and hostile sovereignties within this broad heritage of our fathers, we presume not to determine. Do these protestants, who so anxiously avoid political entanglements, desire the General Assembly to anticipate the dread decision of impending battle, the action of our own government, the determination of foreign powers, and even the ultimate arbitration of Heaven? Would they have us recognize, as good Presbyterians, men whom our own government, with the approval of Christendom, may soon execute as traitors? May not the highest Court of our Church, speaking as the interpreter of that holy law which says, "Ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake," Rom. xiii. 5, warn her communicants against "resisting the ordinance of God"? Rom. xiii. 2. In the language of the learned Reviewer above cited, "Is disunion morally right? Does it not involve a breach of faith, and a violation of the oaths by which that faith was confirmed? We believe, under existing circumstances, that it does, and therefore it is as dreadful a blow to the Church as it is to the State. If a crime at all, it is one the heinousness of which can only be imperfectly estimated."

In the judgment of this Assembly, "this saying is true;" and therefore the admission, on the part of the Assembly, that Presbyterians may take up arms against the Federal Government, or aid and comfort its enemies, and yet be guiltless, would exhibit that "practical recognition of the right of secession," which, says the Reviewer, would "destroy our national life."

But we deny that this deliverance of the Assembly establishes any new term of communion. The terms of Christian fellowship are laid down in the word of God, and are embodied in our standards. It is competent to this Court to interpret and apply the doctrines of the word; to warn men against prevailing sins; and to urge the performance of neglected duties. We regard the action, against which these protests are levelled, simply as a faithful declaration, by the Assembly, of Christian duty towards those in authority over us; which adds nothing to the terms of communion already recognized. Surely the idea of the obligation of loyalty to our Federal Government is no new thing to Presbyterians.

And this is a sufficient reply, also, to the second article of this protest. Having established no new term of membership, this Assembly is not liable to the charge of having departed from the old paths.

A third ground of protest is the allegation that this action of the Assembly is uncalled for, and unnecessary. Yet, on the admission of these protestants themselves, it is "a notorious fact," that many of our ministers and members believe themselves absolved from all obligations of loyalty to our National Government—believe, in contradiction to the Princeton Reviewer, that disunion is morally right; and some are already in arms to vindicate these opinions. What, when "a crime, the heinousness of which can only be imperfectly estimated"— "striking as dreadful a blow at the Church as at the State," is already committed; when thousands of Presbyterians are likely to be seduced from their allegiance by the machinations of wicked men; when our national prosperity is overclouded; when every material interest is in jeopardy, and every spiritual energy paralyzed; when armed rebellion joins issue with armed authority on battle-fields, where tens of thousands must perish; when it remains a question, whether our national life survives the conflict, or whether our sun sets in anarchy and blood—is it uncalled for, unnecessary, for this Christian Assembly to renew, in the memories and hearts of a Christian people, respect for the majesty of law, and a sense of the obligation of loyalty? Let posterity decide between us.

That this decision of the Assembly is unjust to a portion of our Church, not now fully represented in this body, is a fourth reason of protest. We need only reply, that the roll of this Assembly shows delegates from Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas. (All might have been as easily represented.) Besides, this action has no local or sectional character. The subject is of national relations, as well as of such pressing urgency, that to have waited for a full Southern representation, in a future Assembly, would have been to lose for ever the critical moment when action would be productive of good.

As to the final ground of protest, it is enough to record our simple denial of the opinions expressed. We sincerely believe that this action of the General Assembly will increase the power of the Church for good; securing, as we humbly trust it will, the favour of her exalted Head, in behalf of those who testify for a suffering truth.

Judicial Case No. 4 was then resumed—the Complaint and Appeal of the Presbytery of Passaic against the Synod of New Jersey. The usual charge of the Moderator was made, and after the Complaint and Appeal had been read, it was, on motion of Judge Scates, Resolved, That the Assembly cannot entertain this case as one of appeal, inasmuch as it has not been made by one of the original parties.

The case was then continued as a Complaint, when a motion was made by Dr. Edwards, and an amendment by Dr. Imbrie, which was accepted by the mover, for dismissing the case entirely, on account of defect in the records of the Synod.

On this question a discussion proceeded beyond the hour of adjournment, by permission of the Assembly; the usual exercises of devotion for half an hour having been postponed, in order to attend on this business.

Mr. Waller resigned his office as Temporary Clerk, and Dr. Edwards was appointed in his place. The thanks of the Assembly, on motion of Mr. Hamill, were voted to Mr. Waller for his services.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Dr. Hornblower.

FRIDAY Afternoon, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Hanson.

The unfinished business on Judicial Case No. 4 was resumed, and after further discussion, the previous question was moved by Judge Ewing and sustained. The vote was then taken, on the motion of Drs. Edwards and Imbrie, which was adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That the case be returned to the Synod for a new trial, if a new trial be required.

1st. Because it appears from the record of the Synod that the original parties in the case were never heard by them; the original parties, in the judgment of the Assembly, being Mr. Wm. B. Guild, and the Committee prosecuting for common fame.

2d. Because the reasons for the decision of the Synod were not recorded according to the requisition in Chap. iv. Sec. 23, Book of Discipline.

Judicial Case No. 6 was then taken up—the appeal of T. F. Worrall against the Synod of Illinois. The usual charge was read by the Moderator, and the Assembly proceeded with the case according to the order prescribed in the report of the Committee, which is as follows:

The Committee report as follows. This case originated before the Session of the church of Bloomington, on charges preferred against the appellant by the Session on "general rumour."

After an examination the Session convicted him, and passed sentence excluding him from the communion of the Church.

An appeal was taken from this decision to the Presbytery of Bloomington, which refused to sustain the appeal. An appeal was taken from thence to the Synod, which refused also to sustain the appeal. From this decision of the Synod of Illinois this appeal is taken to the General Assembly.

The appeal was regularly taken, and the reasons filed for the same with the proper officers of the Synod. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the same be taken up and tried according to the form prescribed in the Book of Discipline, and that the papers be read in the following order, to wit:

1st. The sentence appealed from, as recorded in the minutes of the Session of Bloomington church, and the decision of the Synod refusing to sustain the appeal from the same.

2d. The reasons which were assigned by the appellant for his appeal.

3d. The whole record of the Session in this case, commencing on page 85 of their Sessional Records, and terminating on page 111; also all the testimony taken on the trial of the same, and the reasons of their decision.

While reading the record of the proceedings in the courts below, the time for adjournment came, when

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet this evening at 8 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Mr. William Eaton.

FRIDAY Evening, 8 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Newland.

On motion of Judge Ewing, the resolution he had offered in connection with the business on the Board of Education, was taken from the docket, and was adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That the Board of Education be instructed to make no appropriation to a beneficiary for a second or subsequent year, without a report and renewed application from the Presbytery under whose care the beneficiary is placed.

On motion of Dr. Hall, it was Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed to draw on the Treasurer of the General Assembly in favour of the Rev. J. W. Yeomans, Moderator of the last Assembly, for the amount expended by him on account of the appointment of the day of prayer in January last.

Dr. Wines, from the Committee on Theological Seminaries, reported on the Overture of Dr. Warren, referred to them this morning, the following statement:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries have received and considered a memorial of the Rev. Joseph Warren, D. D., praying for relief at the hands of the Assembly, in the matter of a claim against the Seminary of the North-West, for services rendered several years ago as General Agent of the Board of Directors, while the institution was still under the care of the Synods of the North-West.

On motion of Dr. Musgrave, as a substitute for the minute recommended by the Committee, the case was referred to the proper authorities in the Seminary of the North-West.

Mr. Williamson, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been granted to Messrs. Heckman, Guest, Miller, Kelly, Price (ruling elder,) Biggs, Conn, McNair, Stuart, McConnell, Kinnear, Rutherford, Crane, Lindsley, Ballantyne, Hunt, William Semple, Lockwood, Alrich, Mercer, Dickson, Matthews, Harbison, Combs, Cochran, Balch, Eastman, Williams, Forbes, Wells, Young, Lyon, Litle, Hazeltine, Campbell, Hamilton, Goodman, and Kennedy.

The report was approved.

The unfinished business, Judicial Case No. 6, was then resumed, and the reading of testimony and records was continued and concluded, when

The Assembly adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Moderator.

SATURDAY Morning, June 1.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Badeau.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Mr. McInnis presented the dissent, with reasons, of which he gave notice yesterday, which was admitted to record, and is as follows:

The undersigned dissents from the action of the Assembly in reference to the second exception taken to the records of the Synod of South Carolina, touching the deliverance of the Assemblies of 1818 and 1845, on the question of slavery; because the minute adopted by this Assembly seems to imply that those deliverances are laws in our Church, binding upon the conscience, which I am satisfied was not the mind of this Assembly in voting to sustain the exception. R. McInnis.

The unfinished business, Judicial Case No. 6, was then resumed. The parties were heard, and members of the inferior judicatory; and then withdrew, at the direction of the Moderator.

The roll was called, that every member might have an opportunity of giving his opinion on the case.

During this calling of the roll, the hour for devotional exercises having come, these were, on motion of Dr. Hodge, postponed, in order to go on with this case. The case was accordingly continued to a conclusion, in the usual forms. The final vote was 40 to sustain, 39 to sustain in part, and 5 not to sustain.

On motion, a committee was appointed to bring in a minute, expressive of the judgment of the Assembly in the case.

Messrs. Hodge, J. D. Smith, and H. K. Clarke, were appointed this committee. They subsequently reported the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, as the expression of the judgment of this Assembly, That the sentence of excommunication against T. F. Worrall, by the Session of the Church at Bloomington, Illinois, be reversed, as being unduly severe. The Assembly, however, do not intend by this decision to restore Dr. Worrall to the communion of the Church, from which he is now understood to be suspended, on other charges still under adjudication; nor do the Assembly intend to decide that he did not deserve censure for the improper language which is set forth in the charges against him.

Overture No. 19 was taken up from the docket—respecting the erection of a new Synod; and, on motion of Mr. Hamill, this subject was postponed, and referred to the next General Assembly.

Dr. Wines moved the following resolution, which was put by the Permanent Clerk, and unanimously adopted, viz.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly be given to the Moderator for the ability, dignity, courtesy, promptness, and impartiality with which he has discharged the duties of the Chair, during a session of the body unusually protracted, and amid scenes of excitement and interest unparalleled in all our past history as a Church.

The paper of Mr. Childs, offered last evening, was taken from the docket; and, on motion of Dr. Musgrave, was laid on the table.

Mr. Hamill moved the following resolutions, which were adopted, viz.

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly be presented to the Trustees and Congregation of the Seventh Presbyterian Church, for the accommodations afforded by the use of the Church and Lecture-rooms for the meetings of this body.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be rendered to the citizens of Philadelphia, who have kindly entertained the members in attendance during its sessions.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be rendered to those Railroad Companies who have generously consented to pass members of this Assembly over their roads at reduced fare.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of New Jersey reported, recommending the approval of the same, with the exceptions already recorded by the Assembly, in deciding to send back to that Synod Judicial Case No. 4.

The report of the Committee on Systematic Benevolence was taken up from the docket, and both reports already noticed, were read and amended, and adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Systematic Benevolence, in reporting to the General Assembly, regret that they have to state that few, comparatively, of the Presbyteries connected with this body, have made any report on this subject, that has come into our hands. We have received reports from only forty-one, out of more than one hundred and seventy Presbyteries. This number falls very much short of that received last year, when eighty-four Presbyteries reported. It does not even come up to the number of the year preceding, when forty-four reports were sent up. This remissness in attending to the Assembly's injunction, repeated yearly for several years past, we deeply regret, as it must result, unless speedily remedied, in defeating an object which the Assembly for years has cherished—the securing of an efficient system of action in the cause of Christian beneficence.

By a standing order of the Assembly, the churches are all directed to make yearly contributions to several objects, the support of which is intimately connected with the prosperous growth, if not the continued existence, of the Church. These are the Boards of Missions Foreign and Domestic, the Boards of Church Extension and of Education, the Colportage work of the Board of Publication, and the Fund for the relief of Disabled Ministers and the needy families of deceased ministers. In addition to these objects, they have strongly urged on all their churches to contribute annually to the Bible cause. Each of these objects claims the hearty support of every Church that wishes to fulfil the duties of her high vocation, and to discharge her obligations to a perishing world. The object aimed at by the Assembly in reference to this matter is definite and simple; it is to secure a contribution for each of these objects from every one of our churches, and, if possible, to obtain the coöperation of every member of our different congregations in supporting each.

In looking over the reports placed in their hands, the Committee are gratified to find that the Presbyteries reporting, express generally an increased interest in the subject. Several report a larger number of collections than heretofore. Some speak of an increased spirit of liberality in their churches. A number report contributions for several of the Boards of the Church from their Sabbath-schools. This fact we view with sincere satisfaction, believing that our children and youth should be early taught to appreciate intelligently the institutions of the Church, and to contribute willingly to their support. The success of the American Board in raising over $20,000 to purchase their missionary ship, by means of the contributions of Sabbath-schools, shows what important assistance to the cause of Christ may be afforded by the agency of the young. Any system for securing the resources of the Church to this object, must, we are persuaded, prove essentially defective, which does not include the training up of our children and youth to habits of orderly, enlightened, Christian beneficence.

By examining the reports made to this Assembly from the different Boards of the Church, your Committee also find that a larger number of our churches have contributed to several of them than heretofore. Still we have to deplore that scarcely more than one-half of all the churches in our connection have contributed to any one Board. Out of more than 3600 churches, only 1822 have given anything, the past year, to the Board of Domestic Missions. This, although a gain of 117 over the year before, indicates that not more than one-half, at most, of our churches, have given anything to this cause.

To the great work of Foreign Missions, only 1448 churches have contributed. The Board of Education has received collections from between thirteen and fourteen hundred churches; the Board of Publication from between eight and nine hundred churches; the Board of Church Extension from not quite six hundred; while only 241 churches have evinced, by their contributions, any sympathy with Christ's poor, disabled ministers. It gives us pain to make these statements.

To meet this sad delinquency, all our Presbyteries need to wake up to the solemn responsibility resting on them. None of them should rest satisfied till they can present a full statistical report, showing that all their churches contribute regularly to each of the objects named. It is true that most of the Presbyteries have some feeble churches, many of which are not statedly supplied with a preached gospel; but we would remind them that one cause which keeps these churches feeble, may be a lack of fidelity in contributing to the cause of Christ. Each Presbytery, by appointing one or more of their members to bring this matter before their vacant churches, might help to secure the object aimed at. The Committee also are unanimously of the opinion that it will essentially tend to further this cause, for the Assembly to appoint particular days for bringing the objects specified before the churches.

In relation to the method taken by the Church Extension Board to raise funds for erecting a church edifice at St. Anns, a matter referred to your Committee, we recommend the following action:

Resolved, That while the Assembly do not disapprove of what the Board have done, they trust it will not be regarded as a precedent for making special appeals to all the children of the Church for limited and local purposes.

In relation to the general subject committed to them, they recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That at the stated times for taking up the congregational collection, the Sabbath-schools of the church be also afforded an opportunity for giving in their contributions.

Resolved, 2. That the Presbyteries be enjoined at their next stated meetings to take order on this whole subject, so as to secure for it the attention of all their churches, that they appoint a committee to superintend the carrying out of the plan in their vacant churches, and that their Stated Clerks be directed to send up their annual reports regularly to the General Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That at least two weeks before the object of any of our Boards is to be presented in accordance with this plan, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of that Board to remind, by a suitable circular, each and all of our churches of the coming day set apart by the General Assembly on their behalf, and, at the same time, to forward to each church, with the Sabbath-school, all the necessary blanks published by the Board to facilitate the carrying out the plan of our Church.

The Committee on Systematic Benevolence, appointed last year to present to this General Assembly such facts and suggestions as they may deem worthy of attention, beg leave to present the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, Many of our churches do not contribute to our benevolent enterprises, and whereas, it is desirable to test the power of simultaneous effort; and whereas, an emergency has arisen, requiring the coöperation of all our churches to save our Boards from serious embarrassment, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly earnestly request all our churches that have no fixed times for the purpose, to take up annual collections as follows, viz.

For the Board of Domestic Missions on the first Sabbath of November.

For the Board of Foreign Missions on the first Sabbath of January.

For the Board of Education on the first Sabbath of March.

For the Colportage Fund of the Board of Publication on the first Sabbath of May.

For the Board of Church Extension on the first Sabbath of July.

For the Disabled Ministers' Fund on the first Sabbath of September.

Resolved, 2. That when the annual collections cannot be taken up on the days above designated, it be recommended to take them up as soon thereafter as possible.

Resolved, 3. That the different Boards be directed to aid this effort for simultaneous collections by all proper means within their reach.

Resolved, 4. That this Assembly respectfully solicit the conductors of our various religious newspapers to coöperate with this effort.

On motion of Mr. H. K. Clarke, the following resolutions were adopted, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline be directed to meet at the City of Pittsburgh, on Tuesday, the 13th of August next, at 7 o'clock, P. M., to proceed upon the matters referred to them; and that such members as shall meet in accordance with this resolution shall be a quorum for the transaction of their business.

Resolved, 2. That this Committee be directed to report such amendments or alterations in the rules of order as they may deem adapted to promote the dispatch of business in the Assembly.

A letter was announced from the Chairman of the Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly on the subject of a Church Commentary; and, on motion of Dr. J. T. Backus, it was referred to the next General Assembly.

The Stated Clerk, from the Committee appointed by the last Assembly, "to devise some method for properly preserving the records and papers of the Assembly, and to report what papers, if any, may be placed in the care of the Historical Society," made a verbal report, which was accepted; and on motion, it was Resolved, That this Committee be continued, and report to the next General Assembly.

Mr. E. B. Miller, from the Committee on the Incorporation of Churches, having made verbal statements in connection with this business, was directed to report to the next General Assembly.

It was then, on motion,

Resolved, That this General Assembly be dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, be required to meet in the First Presbyterian Church, in the City of Columbus, and State of Ohio, on the third Thursday of May, at 11 o'clock, A. M., in the year of our Lord, 1862.

Closed with singing, prayer, and the apostolic benediction.

ALEXANDER T. McGILL,
PERMANENT CLERK.

JOHN LEYBURN,
STATED CLERK.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TO THE MINISTERS, RULING ELDERS, AND CHURCHES UNDER THEIR CARE:

Beloved Brethren—The times through which we are passing fill us with solemnity. It is with more than usual earnestness that we send forth to you a narrative of God's dealings with this branch of the Church of Christ during the year gone by, and address to you words of exhortation. We look back at the past, and all seems bright; we look towards the future, and there is uncertainty and anxiety. Amidst this uncertainty, how much depends on the faithfulness of God's people! We do beseech you to stir up your minds to a just appreciation of your true position as God's living witnesses in the earth, that you may properly act in the present emergency. He that sinks to the level of the mere world in such a time as this, forgets the high vocation wherewith the Church is called. The salt has lost its savour; and what must become of the Church or the world, when the Church falls from her steadfastness, and fails to shine as a light in the world? On the contrary, let us only be assured that the Church of the living God will but do her duty, and we have no fears for the effect of any storm that blows. Christ's power within her is always equal to any emergency.

We have received accounts of the state of religion from one hundred and twelve out of one hundred and seventy-one Presbyteries. These cover all parts of the field except the South-East portion of our country. The impression produced by these has gladdened our hearts. We are constrained to say of our beloved Church, "Surely God is in the midst of her. In giving you a condensed summary of these reports, let us say first of all, There are many things in the year's events for which we are bound to thank God in your behalf. Prominent among them is the regular growth and increasing influence of our Church. By this is not meant merely the extension of her bounds (gratifying as this fact is,) but the steady and gradual diffusion of light and truth by her means, in dispelling error, and in elevating men to a higher point of scriptural knowledge and faith in the Lord Jesus. The salt is gradually doing its work in purifying the earth. Listen to these facts:

1. Nearly every one of the Presbyteries on our outlying frontier posts speak of the strong conflict between the truth of the gospel and the various forms of error and sin prevailing among them—universalism, infidelity, spiritualism, Sabbath-breaking, drunkenness, and profanity. The forces are met hand to hand. This in itself is a token for good, for it shows that the army of Christ's Church is not asleep, not slothful, not overcome by error, but awake and active. But more: these Presbyteries all speak also of this conflict being sustained on the part of the truth with vigour and with hope. And they speak encouragingly in almost every instance of the victory manifestly declaiming itself on the side of truth and godliness. The evidences reported of this are as follows: A larger attendance upon the ministrations of the word, a growing regularity in the services of the Sabbath, the supply of pastors in fields formerly vacant or occasionally supplied, the growth of religious instruction in the family, the opening and occupation of new fields, and last, though not least, the maturing of past labours in fields long occupied and cultivated with laborious effort. In short, the leaven is doing its silent yet effective work. We lose no ground already won, and we make decided advances into new territory of the enemy. This is a feature not sufficiently appreciated—a feature which we often indeed fail to recognize in the presence of more striking results; and yet it is a feature which demands devout gratitude to God, for it shows that the tree is growing silently yet surely under the rain and dew of God's blessing. Let us not forget, in this connection, the hopeful condition of our efforts among the German population in the West and North-West. The care of these has often presented a problem of particular difficulty; but it is fast solving in the most cheering way under the persevering efforts of faithful men of God in our Presbyteries in that region. Nor must we omit to mention the growing success referred to by a number of the Presbyteries, in evangelizing the coloured people in our Southern and South-Western States. These reports speak of increased attention to this class, and of corresponding results. Besides opportunities to hear the word under its regular ministrations among their white brethren, special missionaries, in several of our Presbyteries, devote their whole time to this class; and one Presbytery takes notice of a particular attention paid to family instruction by means of Jones's Catechism, among the families of the coloured people themselves.

2. A second fact which deserves commemoration is the testimony that comes to us from all quarters of the land that our churches are enjoying peace and prosperity. No fell disaster has broken up congregations or destroyed the influence of the truth in any region. This testimony is almost uniform, the exceptions being next to none. Nor has this peace and prosperity been unattended by brighter results. Even in cases where no special outpouring of the Spirit has been witnessed, the ordinary effects of the preached gospel have been secured, in a goodly number of hopeful converts, in increased attendance on the Sabbath, in a deeper interest in Bible-classes and Sabbath-schools. Churches have become self-sustaining, and new and commodious houses of worship built in feeble territories have strengthened the position of God's people in maintaining the truth in the midst of error; and throughout the whole field, with very rare exceptions, an increase is noted in the contributions to the objects of benevolence and the Boards of the Church.

3. We notice also in the third place, that in many cases where no general visitation of the Holy Spirit's converting influences is observed upon all the churches in a Presbytery, exceptions in the case of one, two, or more churches are noted, where a year of copious fruitfulness has been enjoyed, yielding even a hundred fold. As many as twelve Presbyteries record this experience. A number of such revived churches have doubled, and one church has even trebled its numbers by this visitation, and one Presbytery has been raised from the verge of extinction to prosperity and efficiency. Even where these bright exceptions of revival are not recorded, there have been in other Presbyteries equally numerous signals of God's blessing in other things—things outward, indeed, but still greatly serviceable—in the extinction of church debts, in the unusual prevalence of a spirit of prayer, in the decline of vice, and in the growth of a moral power through the community.

4. As a brighter fact still, many of our Presbyteries record special manifestations of God's Spirit in many, and in some cases in even all their churches. Among these we may mention particularly the Presbyteries of Beaver, Newton, Coshocton, Huntingdon, Nassau, Long Island, North River, Sangamon, West Lexington, Louisville, Danville, Knoxville, Transylvania, Muhlenburg, Western District, Missouri, Lafayette, Monmouth, and Iowa. In some of these the blessing has been more extensive than in others. In a number of them the converts are numbered by hundreds.

There are two other cases of the outpouring of the Spirit which we do not feel at liberty to pass by. These are both in the foreign field. There is a movement in the providence of God in these days which must have arrested your attention. At the same moment when the world is full of trouble, God has in an unprecedented manner heard the prayers of his people, and opened one effectual door after another among the heathen; and more—he has opened the hearts of the heathen to the gospel, where preached. Never was the field so white to the harvest.

Here are two cases to illustrate this. The first comes from the Presbytery of Corisco, on the West coast of Africa. See what God hath wrought! Ten years ago the heathen chiefs were met in public council to ask for missionaries. Then all was darkness, ignorance, superstition, and crime; and now there is a Presbytery to send you its Narrative; there is a church of 63 members, including 52 converts from heathenism, and 40 more are seeking a spiritual knowledge of Christianity; there is an eldership, including 3 native converts, all candidates for the ministry; there are Sabbath services at 4 stations, and there are Sabbath-schools numbering 160 pupils. What renders this the more interesting is that almost all this has been accomplished during the past year. From its beginning to its close, it has been a year of blessing. At its opening almost no special indications for good were visible; but almost immediately the showers began to fall, and now the wilderness blossoms as the rose. As fruits of this blessing, 43 have been admitted to the Lord's table, and many more are inquiring. The heathen women, who until this time have invariably stood aloof from the gospel, have yielded, and are sitting meekly at the feet of Jesus. Nor have the converts been confined to the pupils of the schools, but others beyond their instruction have been apprehended by the Lord Jesus. Even beyond the precincts of the island itself the work has been carried, and the heathen there have become steadfast believers; they have abandoned superstitions, they have endured the cross of persecution, and they have been gifted with a spirit of prayer, surprising even to the missionary brethren themselves.

The other case is that of the Presbytery of Ningpo, in China. You were referred in the Narrative of the last year to the work of God in this place. It is our joyful privilege to apprize you that this work has continued with undiminished power. During the year, 35 persons have been added to the church, and these are from six different provinces. Besides, a manifest advance has been made in the knowledge, spirituality, and devotedness of the native assistants, and of the candidates for the ministry. A daily prayer-meeting at 12 o'clock, commencing with the week of prayer in January, 1860, has been established, and is generally well attended. Prejudices are gradually giving way before the light of truth; and never before have the missionaries of the Word been so hopeful and so joyful in God. Surely, brethren, it becometh us to give thanks to God that his word has had such "free course and been glorified."

There is one feature presented in the reports which come to us from the whole field deserving special notice. Throughout our bounds, the past year has witnessed a remarkable awakening of the zeal of God's people in behalf of the young. This shows itself generally in an increased attention (marked everywhere) to the ordinary means of teaching—Sabbath-schools, Bible-classes, and family instruction. But more specifically, in unusual and particular efforts to bring the truth to bear upon the minds of children, with fervent prayer for God's blessing; in the zeal of our people in establishing mission-schools among the neglected juvenile population of our cities, North, West, and South; and especially in the signal blessing of God which has attended these efforts. We note particularly the Presbyteries of Londonderry, New York 1st, Nassau, Mohawk, Genesee River, Ogdensburg, Raritan, Beaver, Philadelphia, Donegal, St. Clairsville, and Michigan. The number of youth brought into the communion of the Church during the last year is remarkable.

We pause here, beloved brethren, to hold up your hands in this excellent work. We are persuaded that the Church of God has not practically felt the vast importance of this sort of effort to promote her normal growth. She has been too prone to wait for riper years before expecting to see the fruit of her labours, instead of looking for an early blessing upon the souls whom she has dedicated to God—whom she is training in obedience to his command, and for whom she continually prays. We notice then with gratitude, that God in these days is pointing out to the Church, by her success in this respect, her privilege of expecting a fulfilment of the promise, "I will pour my Spirit on thy seed, and my blessing on thine offspring, and they shall grow up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses."

On the other hand, we cannot pass by this feature of God's work among us without reminding pastors, ruling elders, and churches, of one duty which grows out of it. We mean the careful instruction of these multitudes of young persons who have been thus brought to acknowledge their faith in Jesus. There are two extremes which we wish to avoid. On the one side, we are far from believing that early and very early fruits of piety are not to be looked for and encouraged among the children of the Church. But on the other, we would as carefully guard you against the opinion, that when young persons are brought to confess their faith, all that is necessary has been done, and that they may safely be left to themselves. On the contrary, we cannot too strongly impress it on your minds, that these youth are still in Christ's school—still comparatively ignorant and weak, and exposed to peculiar temptations. They demand special culture. They need, and they must have particular watch and particular instruction. We are persuaded that it has been the adoption of one extreme view or the other which has either kept back so many of our baptized children from the ordinances of the Church, or admitted them without any proper care, to be afterwards a clog and hindrance to the cause of Christ—men with a mere name to live. Feed, then, we beseech you, these lambs of the flock. It is of the greatest moment to determine what sort of Christians these young persons shall become. And it is not too much to affirm, that on the labours of their elders who surround them, it will largely depend whether they become drones in the Church, or faithful, efficient, steadfast servants of Jesus Christ—the glory of the Churches.

Appropriate to this subject is the advices which come from a number of the Presbyteries, of the increased efficiency of the ruling eldership in their labours of love among the people. We hail with marked pleasure this feature of the year's history. This arm of service in Christ's Church cannot be too highly estimated; and we take the occasion to stir up the minds of those who exercise this holy office to an increased proof of their zeal. Higher views of the importance and of the required labours of this office must be attained among our elders generally, before the fullest efficiency of our admirable form of church government can be displayed. In many cases we are glad to know that an effective eldership is the moving spring of a church's success. But, alas! in many more cases views of required duty fall far below the proper standard. With all loving kindness we beseech those who rule in the house of God to think of these things.

Amidst these multiplied tokens of God's favour and blessing throughout the length and breadth of the field, there are some notes of mourning. To these (though they are very few) we must in all fidelity give a passing notice. Some of our Presbyteries are full of lamentation over the desecration of the Sabbath in their midst; the ardent pursuit of mere worldly wealth by the professed followers of Christ; vacant churches; unemployed ministers; Sabbath-schools in a sickly condition; the children and youth growing up without the means of grace; the feeble and almost expiring condition of some of their churches; the decline in some of piety; in others the decline of the spirit of benevolence. These things are cause for humiliation. And while we would exhort these desponding brethren who sigh over these things to be hopeful in God, we do earnestly warn those of whom these things are true of their sins before God. This spirit, beloved, cometh not of Him that calleth you. The word of God is express, "Love not the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him." And we do remind all such as walk disorderly, of the words of our Lord Jesus, "Beware lest at any time your hearts be surcharged with surfeitings, and drunkenness, and the cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares, for as a snare shall it come upon the whole earth." "The eyes of the Lord are as a flame of fire." "He searches the heart, and tries the reins, to give to every man according as his work shall be." "To them that by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality, eternal life; but to them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; but glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile; for there is no respect of persons with God."

And now, beloved, the circumstances in which God's providence has placed us as a Church and a nation, demands that we part not from you without a closing word of expostulation. The times in which we live are perilous to the interests of the Church of Christ. All past experience proves this, and our daily history testifies the same. The danger we allude to is, the danger of allowing any duty which we think we owe to the times, to become so absorbing as almost to displace the affections from heavenly things, and confine them to what is merely earthly. It should never be forgotten, that even positive obligations may, by excess, degenerate from high Christian principle to mere worldliness. A man owes a duty as a Christian to his family, to provide for its support. And yet, who does not know that this duty may become so absorbing as to sink into mere covetousness? It is so with regard to political obligations. Times like the present so confine the attention to these, that often heavenly tastes grow cold; spiritual duties are forgotten; the holy watch and guardianship of the Church upon the world ceases, and iniquity abounds. Even the very sanctifying motive which at first kindled and gave lustre to the feeling of patriotism is lost sight of. All that is spiritual declines; and all becomes worldly.

Beloved brethren, we do not speak from mere apprehension. Already the cry of sadness on this very account reaches us from not less than twenty Presbyteries; and from all parts of the field—North, West, and South. Let it not be forgotten, that in perilous times like these, our only hope must be in the zeal, and fidelity, and watchfulness of the Church of God itself. If the members of the Church be forgetful of their duty—unstable, carried headlong—what hope can we have of holding back the unsanctified world to duty, to spirituality, to God, and to truth? If the eye of faith fail to perceive, and to be impressed by the glory of the world to come, what hope can there be that the spiritually blind will be impressed by it?

And now, beloved brethren, we do "beseech you, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit," that you will in these times be doubly watchful, doubly in earnest, as Christians. And that you may understand us, we say specifically: 1. Be watchful as to your own communion with God. It is with no ordinary importunity that we assure you, that contact with God in prayer, and the contact of your hearts with his truth, is in these times necessary to your safety. 2. Be prompt in the constant assembling of yourselves together in all God's ordinances. Whoever is remiss in these times, we beseech you, suffer not God's ordinances to languish for the want of your presence. It was exactly in the times of great peril and worldliness, that "they who feared the Lord spake often one to another; and the Lord hearkened and heard, and a book of remembrance was written." You need this Christian communion now more than ever. You cannot do without it. 3. Remit not your labours for the instruction and salvation of souls. We do entreat you, let no excitement around you distract your attention from your faithful labours to win souls to Christ. 4. Again, remember the cause of benevolence. We need not inform you how necessary is special effort on your part. The present year threatens to be one of sore difficulty to every scheme of charity. Beloved brethren, the cause of Christ appeals to you with imperative claims to do your duty. If you have withheld before, withhold not now. If you have heretofore given liberally, let not your hand be slack now. If you have even been tried with poverty, be sure that there was never an occasion when "the abundance of your joy and your deep poverty should so abound unto the riches of your liberality," as in our present circumstances. 5. And need we exhort you, brethren, in this solemn hour, to study the things which make for peace? Notwithstanding the strong and earnest differences of judgment on many subjects, we have been deeply impressed with the fact, that our beloved Church is still one in faith, one in order, and one in all the great distinctive features of Presbyterianism. This Church cannot be rent asunder without great sin somewhere. Let our supplications be incessant, that He who can bring light out of darkness, and order out of confusion, may so overrule all present diversities, as to preserve the peace, unity, and perpetuity of the Church.

Finally, we would remind you, that "we have received a kingdom which cannot be moved." When the last shaking of the kingdoms of the earth shall come, that immoveable kingdom will alone remain. Brethren, do not forget that this kingdom is yours, above all other states or kingdoms. Its blessings are yours above all other blessings, which, after all, are only blessings by the way. Your citizenship is in heaven, "from whence also we look for the Lord Jesus." We exhort you to keep your hearts fixed on your true inheritance. This will animate your present duty. This will lift you up above the defilements of mere wordliness, under any excitements. This will subordinate every passing interest in your hearts to the one controlling desire of "labouring, that whether present or absent, you may be accepted of the Lord Jesus."

And "now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, who hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work;" and "to Him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and for ever. Amen."

JOHN C. BACKUS, Moderator.

Of these John Clark, George H. Fullerton, and Newal S. Lowrie, came with regular dismission from the Western Theological Seminary, at Allegheny. A. B. Mervin from the Union Theological Seminary, N. Y. George Streter from the Theological Seminary at Columbia, S. C., and S. J. Donnelly from the Theological Seminary at Bangor, Maine.

Besides these there have been in attendance the Rev. C. M. McKeracher, of Canada West; Owen Riedy, resident graduate; and ———— Boardman, a student of Andover, who found it necessary to spend the winter in Princeton for the sake of his health.

The number in connection with the Institution during the year is 162, of whom six have been absent during the whole term.

The Professors speak encouragingly of the general good health of the students, promoted by the system of gymnastic exercises, and the comfort of the well managed and attractive Refectory. And they further add, that if the Church would provide the means to continue the present plan by supplementing the $2 per week paid by the students, by allowing the steward fifty cents per week additional, the interest of the Seminary would be promoted, and in the view of the officers, the health, comfort, and convenience of the students be advanced. The waste of time, neglected duties, and a variety of inconveniences would be avoided. Great attention has been paid to study—zeal and animation in it displayed.

The Board are happy to report, that an arrangement has been made through the aid of the ladies in New York, by which the students have special lectures from Professor Guyot, on the subjects of Physical Geography, Geology, and Ethnology, and from Dr. Atwater on Mental and Moral Science, thus bringing to the reach of the Institution the instructions of these distinguished Professors.

The deportment of the students has been exemplary, and the usual attention to social and special devotions. Several of the best graduates are meditating the field of foreign labours, and three or four are destined to the great empire rising on the Pacific Coast.

At the close of the session the students were examined by a Committee of the Board for five successive days, and they report great gratification in the result, both as evincing the fidelity of the Professors, and the encouraging success of the students.

Certificates of having finished the whole course of study of three years prescribed in the plan, were conferred on the following sixty students, a larger number, be it remarked with gratitude to the great Head of the Church, than ever left at one time the halls of the Seminary, viz. H. S. Alexander, William Alexander, John Taylor Baird, D. Stuart Banks, Lewis C. Bayles, John Burrows, Wm. H. Cain, Thomas Carter, Samuel T. Carter, John Clark, John F. Cowan, Jr., S. Bayard Dod, Samuel Dodd, Charles Dunlap, J. Henry Enders, S. Alden Freeman, Sterling M. Galt, Samuel L. Gamble, W. N. Geddes, William Harris, Charles E. Hart, M. L. P. Hill, William H. Hodge, Henry A. Humphrey, Henry Martyn Hurd, Wm. Irvin, J. B. H. Janeway, Wm. A. Jenks, J. H. Johns, Wm. B. Johnson, Kneeland P. Ketcham, David R. Love, John Lowrey, Newell S. Wilhelm, Edward F. Williams, Miles C. Wilson, and F. M. Wood.

The Board respectfully request the General Assembly to transfer Dr. McGill to the chair of Ecclesiastic, Homiletic, and Pastoral Theology.

They also nominate unanimously the Rev. Charles W. Shields, of Philadelphia, to the vacant professorship of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.

The Board have only to report further, that the terms of office of the following Directors expire during the session of the General Assembly.

The whole number in connection with the Seminary during the past year has been one hundred and sixty-five.

The Directors record their gratitude to God that this highest number has been reached by a steady annual increase during the last ten years.

The following thirty-nine students have completed the regular course of studies, and have been awarded the diploma of the Institution, viz. Hugh A. Barclay, Robert Beer, Jr., Andrew J. Compton, M. D., John G. Condit, Nathaniel W. Conkling, John B. Dickey, William Dickson, Hugh H. Dobbins, John Ewing, William B. Faris, W. G. Fisher, George H. Fullerton, William Gaston, Samuel C. George, Loyal Y. Graham, Dwight B. Hervey, James F. Holcomb, William A. Hooper, Samuel A. Hughes, David J. Irwin, William A. Jeffery, Alexander M. Jelly, H. Bruen Lambe, H. E. L. Lippert, James H. Marshall, Samuel V. McKee, W. W. McKinney, Calvin W. Mateer, Philip H. Mowry, F. J. C. Schneider, John H. Sherrard, John B. Smith, Nelson H. Smith, Robert C. Stewart, Augustus Taylor, William M. Taylor, Joseph Vance, Thomas F. Wallace, and Samuel H. Wallace.

The Faculty report to the Board, that there has been a lively interest in the Foreign Missionary work during the last term. This is evinced in the fact that ten or more of the Graduating Class have given themselves to this service for China, India, Central America, and Brazil.

Mr. Theodore Monod, of Paris, has felt it to be his duty to labour in the Kankakee Mission, at St. Anne, during the last term. The opening was very remarkable, and his fitness for that field made the call very urgent.

They also report, that the students and Professors have enjoyed uninterrupted health, and the studies have been prosecuted with unflagging interest.

At the close of the term, the students were examined in the presence of the Committee of the Board, who reported their high gratification with the exercises—evincing ability and fidelity on the part of the Professors, and punctuality and diligence on the part of the students.

The Board also report the acceptance of the Professorship by the Rev. William M. Paxton, D. D., to which he was elected by the last General Assembly—that he entered on the duties of his chair early in the term, and was regularly inaugurated at the late meeting of the Board.

The Directors and Faculty record with gratitude to God, the interesting fact that the Senior Professor, the Rev. David Elliott, D. D., LL.D., has this year completed a quarter of a century in his connection with this Institution.

The Board of Directors report with mournful interest the death of the Rev. Francis Herron, D. D., who fell asleep in Jesus on the 6th of December, A. D. 1860. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary during its entire existence, and presided over that body with universal acceptance, and great efficiency and usefulness, from its organization, on June 19th, 1827, till his death.

We part with this beloved father with deep sorrow, while we record our gratitude to the great Head of the Church who spared him so long, and disposed and enabled him to labour so abundantly for this Institution; and that he permitted him to see and rejoice in the great prosperity and usefulness of this Seminary, in whose trials and triumphs he had felt so deep an interest.

The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire during the sessions of the General Assembly, viz.

There is one vacancy in the class elected by the last Assembly, occasioned by the death of Dr. F. Herron.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary, located at Danville, Kentucky, respectfully submit to the General Assembly their Eighth Annual Report, as follows:

During the session just now terminated, the whole number of students in attendance has been forty-two. Of these the following twelve new students have been admitted since the last report, viz.

T. M. Boyd, graduate of Virginia Military Institute.
A. M. Burbank, educated privately.
S. H. S. Gallaudet, graduate of Jefferson College, Penn.

Edward O. Guerrant,	"	Centre College, Ky.
T. P. Hall,	"	La Grange College, Tenn.
William C. Johnston,	"	Yale College, Conn.
S. M. Luckett,	"	Centre College, Ky.
Eben Muse,	"	" "
Samuel McKee,	"	" "
John N. Rankin,	"	" "
C. R. Van Emman,	"	Jefferson College, Penn.
E. P. Woods,	"	Centre College, Ky.

Of this number, Mr. S. H. S. Gallaudet was received from the Seminary at Columbia, South Carolina, and Mr. C. R. Van Emman, from the Seminary at Allegheny, Pennsylvania.

The following named students, having completed the course of study prescribed in the Plan of the Seminary, and having sustained an examination in the several departments, in the presence of the Board of Directors, have received the certificate of the Seminary, viz.

Samuel D. Crothers, of Ohio; William Crow, of Kentucky; Alexander Henry, of Illinois; James H. McNeilly, of Tennessee; John W. Neil, of Mississippi, Henry S. L. Rex, of Pennsylvania; Matthew Van Lear, of Maryland; and William G. White, of South Carolina.

The Professors report to the Board that the students have pursued their studies with commendable diligence; that their deportment has been exemplary; and that they appear to have cultivated a spirit of piety. An unusual degree of attention has been given to the subject of missions among the heathen, and two of the graduating class have offered their services to the Board of Foreign Missions, and have been accepted on condition that the funds of the Board shall enable it to send them forth to the heathen world.

The Rev. Dr. Joseph T. Smith, who was appointed by the last General Assembly to the Professorship of Church Government and Pastoral Theology, was released from his pastoral charge by the Presbytery of Baltimore, in order that he might accept this appointment. Early in January last he entered upon his duties in the Seminary, and his public inauguration was to have taken place during the present meeting of the Directors, but he was unexpectedly called away from his post a few days before the meeting of the Board, by the dangers which threatened the safety of his family in the city of Baltimore, and consequently was unable to be present at the time appointed. A letter was received from Dr. Smith, expressing his readiness to be inaugurated at any time that might be designated. The Board thereupon determined to hold a meeting at Harrodsburg, Kentucky, on the second day of the sessions of the Synod of Kentucky, in October next, for the purpose of inaugurating him at that time, if the way be clear.

It becomes the painful duty of the Directors to report to the Assembly the death of three of their number during the year now closing, to wit: the Rev. John T. Edgar, D. D., the Rev. Zebulon Butler, D. D., and Daniel B. Price, Esq. Dr. Edgar was one of the founders of the Seminary, and was the President of the Board of Directors from the beginning. He was one of the most judicious, unwavering, and influential friends of the Seminary; wise in counsel and laborious to the end of his days in establishing the work set before the Church herein. Dr. Butler, though prevented by ill health from taking an active part in our proceedings, always exhibited a deep and an abiding interest in the welfare of the Seminary; and Mr. Price was, from the foundation of the Seminary, one of it best friends and most trusted counsellors.

We refer the General Assembly to the Annual Report of the Board of Trustees for a statement of the condition of the finances of the Institution. From this it will be seen there has been some increase of funds since the last report; but this increase has not been such as we could have wished, or as the highest interests of the Seminary demand. This, doubtless, is chiefly attributable to the very depressed and unsettled condition of the monetary affairs of our country during the past year. Nevertheless, we are happy to be able to say that, during the present summer, buildings for library purposes and the better accommodation of the students with comfortable and spacious lodging-rooms, will be erected. In view of all the circumstances connected with this Institution, from its beginning to the present time, we feel that the continued manifestations of God's favour are such as ought to give to the General Assembly and his people the greatest encouragement in the noble work of sustaining, enlarging and completely equipping this school of the prophets.

The Librarian reports the following additions to the Library:

By donation:
From the Board of Publication,	39	volumes.
From Rev. Dr. R. W. Landis, (author)	1	"
From Mr. Eleazar Lord, (author)	3	"
By purchase,	5	"
	48

In addition to the above donations, a package of valuable pamphlets has been received from Mr. A. S. Kemper, and a number of tracts from the Board of Publication:

The Board further reports that the term of office of the following Directors expires during the sessions of the General Assembly of this year:

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
John H. Gray,	Daniel B. Price,
Robert F. Caldwell,	John McCullagh,
J. Mitchell,	Curran Pope,
Thomas F. Cortelyou,	Charles H. Rochester,
W. W. Hill,	Thomas W. Bullock,
E. T. Baird,	C. Carter,
Samuel Steel,	Thomas Henderson,
J. K. Lyle,	J. B. Neely,
R. G. Brank,	John A. Lyle.

Dr. Edgar's term would have expired in 1863, and Dr. Butler's in 1862. These vacancies, caused by the decease of these venerable fathers, it will also be the duty of the Assembly to fill.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

R. A. Lapsley, President of the Board.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, make the following as their Eighth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

Since the last Annual Report there has been a small increase of the funds of the Institution, but the general character and amount of the funds otherwise remain as in last report.

1. The Professors' Fund of one hundred thousand dollars, ($100,000,) consisting of State and Corporation Bonds and Bank Stocks, has received a small increase from the surplus, after payment of salaries to Professors. While the marketable value of these funds has diminished greatly, owing mainly to the unhappy condition of our country, the income thereof has so far been regular, and amply sufficient for the purposes to which it has been devoted.

2. The General Fund amounts to about forty thousand dollars, ($40,000;) having been augmented by its own increase and donations secured during the year. This fund embraces all the assets of the Board, excluding the Professors' Fund, and is substantially in the condition as reported to the last meeting of the General Assembly.

3. The Scholarship Fund remains substantially as reported in our last annual report.

4. The great necessity of suitable public buildings for this Institution, referred to in our former report, determined the Board to erect a commodious addition to the present building, furnishing twelve additional spacious rooms for the accommodation of students. This building is under contract, and will be completed and ready for occupancy by the opening of the next annual session in the fall. The Board, also, for the purpose of greater security to the valuable library of the Institution, determined to erect a suitable separate building for library purposes, capable of answering the wants of the Seminary for a number of years; and the house for this purpose has been placed under contract, and is in process of erection. The erection of the library building, besides furnishing needful protection and security against fire, enables the Board to enlarge the lecture-room of the Seminary, so as to render it more comfortable, and capable of seating about eighty persons. These buildings, both the addition and the library, are to be built of brick and covered with metal. The addition is to be constructed of uniform architecture with the present building, and will, when completed, constitute quite a handsome edifice. The buildings will cost about seven thousand dollars, ($7000,) and will be paid for from the proceeds of the private individual bonds, embraced in the General Fund, and will not in any way affect the Professors' Fund, or materially diminish the reliable annual income of the Institution. These buildings will temporarily supply the pressing necessity of the Seminary, and enlarge the means of its usefulness.

5. For a summary statement of the amount and condition of the funds of the Institution, how and by whom held, reference is made to the last Annual Report. The real estate, held by the Board, has undergone no change since that report, excepting the general depreciation in value, caused by the disastrous condition of the affairs of our country.

6. The Rev. Dr. J. J. Bullock, whose appointment as General Agent was mentioned in our last Annual Report, entered on his agency in October last. He proceeded to the city of New York, where he was kindly received by the pastors and ruling elders of some of the principal churches, and their aid was cheerfully afforded to him. He spent several months in the city, preparing the way for an application to the people of God there, for funds. But the disturbed state of public and of financial affairs prevented him from making the application; but he reports to this Board, that good hopes may be entertained of generous aid from that quarter, when the circumstances become more favourable.

The investments of the Institution are chiefly in the bonds of Missouri, Tennessee, and Kentucky, and the city of Louisville, and in the stocks of the oldest and most wealthy banks in Kentucky. All these bonds and stocks are greatly depreciated in their market value; and upon the question whether they will continue to yield their usual income, or not, depends the ability of the Board to support the Institution. But this Board is strengthened in the persuasion that the Great Head of the Church will, in some way, through the liberality of his people, provide the means for the maintenance of an Institution which has already received so many tokens of the Divine favour.

All of which is respectfully submitted, by order and on behalf of the Board of Trustees.

J. T. Boyle, Secretary.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE NORTH-WEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the North-West respectfully make this their Second Annual Report to the General Assembly.

It is our privilege to record the goodness of God in granting an encouraging measure of progress, during the year past, to the enterprise entrusted to our hands.

The following seventeen new students have been admitted to the Seminary, within the year, viz.

John Thomas Fallis, graduate of Centre College, Ky.
Robert A. Condit, " Nassau Hall, N. J.
Samuel P. Dillon, studied at Hanover College, Ind.
J R. Geyer, graduate of " "
William G. Thomas, graduate of " "
C. P. Voris, " " "
Samuel E. Vance, " Jefferson College, Pa.
Robert H. White, " " "
W. H. Bell, " " "
T. M. Stevenson, " Muskingum College, Ohio.
J. H. Carpenter, " Carroll College, Wis.
C. L. Thompson, " " "
H. A. Newell, " Washington College, Pa.
W. H. Jeffries, " Westminster College, Mo.
John S. Kerr, studied at West Point, N. Y.
E. A. Elfeldt, " Lubeck, Germany.
Ed. Pierce, licentiate of Methodist Church.

This accession of numbers enabled the Faculty to organize a Junior, Middle and Senior Class, in each of which regular instruction has been imparted during the year.

Of the twenty-seven young men with us, eleven were in the Senior, six in the Middle, and ten in the Junior Class—coming from the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, and Wisconsin; having received their previous education in the following Literary Institutions, viz. Carroll, Centre, Hanover, Illinois, Wittenberg, Washington, Jefferson, McDonough, Muskingum, Mount Union, and Westminster Colleges, with Nassau Hall, Waveland Institute, West Point Academy, and Lubeck, Germany.

The following eleven students have pursued the prescribed course of study, and having sustained a highly creditable exmination, received the Certificate of the Seminary, viz. J. H. Carpenter, Samuel H. Geyer, Samuel G. Hair, George W. Hays, J. B. McClure, J. Harvey Nesbit, J. D. Pering, C. L. Thompson, W. B. Trnax, C. P. Voris, and Samuel H. Weller.

The Rev. N. L. Rice, D. D., who has with entire acceptance fulfilled the duties of the Professorship of Didactic and Polemic Theology since the establishment of the Seminary, felt himself compelled to tender his resignation to the Board at the close of the late term. Deeply regretting the necessity impelling him to take this course, and mourning his loss to our young Institution, we yet could not insist upon his remaining in a position where, with his greatly impaired physical powers, to remain might prove fatal. We have therefore reluctantly assented to interpose no obstacle to his resignation, though the result is a vacancy in our board of instruction. This vacancy we ask the Assembly to fill at this meeting by the appointment of a Professor to the chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology.

The Seminary Library has received, during the year, several very important additions. Mr. Harrison K. Corning, whose munificent gift enabled us to found the "Corning Library," has contributed an additional sum of $1000 for its enlargement. With this sum the Faculty have purchased 500 volumes, already received, besides a number ordered from Europe, and not yet arrived. R. Carter & Brothers have generously given additional, 150 volumes; Rev. N. L. Rice, D. D., out of his own library, 78 volumes; and the Board of Publication, their new publications, amounting to 50 volumes—making a total addition to the Library of 758 volumes.

The Report of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, a copy of which is herewith submitted, will show the financial condition of the Seminary. Though the year has been one of continued monetary embarrassment throughout the West, and though the unsettled state of the country has prevented us from enlarging our endowment, we are thankful to be able to report that by collections on old subscriptions, and by new, and some of them very generous donations—supplementing the revenue from the endowment fund—we have been enabled to defray all the expenses for the year.

Cyrus H. McCormick, Esq., having in advance of the stipulated time, paid to the Trustees one-fourth of the $100,000 donated by him to the Seminary, they have invested the same on real estate security, yielding ten per cent. interest.

Nothing has as yet been realized by the Board from the New Albany Seminary.

A friendly suit has been instituted before the United States Court at Indianapolis, with a view to a legal and amicable adjustment of the rights of property. We are happy, however, to say that initiatory steps have been taken which we hope may result in securing the end in view, without even the form of a trial, thus settling this case in the most satisfactory manner.

The Board will further report only, that the lamented death of the Rev. Lowman P. Hawes, of the class of 1864, makes a vacancy in their number; and that the term of office of the following members expires during the sessions of this Assmbly, viz.

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
J. C. Brown, D. D.	J. C. Grier,
John M. Faris,	J. B. Booth,
Wilson M. Donaldson,	A. J. Buel,
Henry Neill,	Samuel Hanna,
T. M. Cunningham.	Samuel Russell.

These vacancies it will devolve on the Assembly to fill.

Respectfully submitted, by order.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1860-61.

In the performance of their duty, the Board of Domestic Missions respectfully present to the General Assembly their Fifty-ninth Annual Report. Whatever of good may have been effected by our instrumentality, we desire humbly and thankfully to ascribe to the Almighty, and to invoke his continued guidance and blessing in all our future operations. In exhibiting the doings and results of the past year, we shall follow the order of arrangement heretofore observed, as this method will facilitate a comparison with former years.

OPERATIONS OF THE YEAR.

Of Missions—Statistical Details.—The number of missionaries in commission, March 1, 1860, was 499, to which have been added, to March 1, 1861, 298; making the whole number 797, and more by 106 than the year previous.

The number of churches and missionary stations wholly or in part supplied (as far as reported) by our missionaries, is 1239.

The number of newly organized churches is 52.

The number of admissions on examination is 2429, and on certificate, 1689; making a total of admissions, 4118.

The number in communion with churches connected with the Board is 29,013.

The number of Sabbath-schools is 438; of teachers, 3712; and of scholars, 23,208.

The number of baptisms is 3255.

Of the 797 missionaries who have been in commission during the year, 251 have sent in no special report for the Assembly—a little less than one-third of the whole number; consequently we must increase all the returns one-third to make them correct.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The appropriations made to our missionaries, from March 1, 1860, to March 1, 1861, have been—at the office in Philadelphia, $76,126.25; at the office in Louisville, $39,179.50; and on behalf of the South-Western Advisory Committee at New Orleans, $15,561—making a total of $130,866.75.

The appropriations made to our missionaries, from March 1, 1859, to March 1, 1860, were—at the office in Philadelphia, $75,011.57; at the office in Louisville, $48,580.58; and on behalf of the South-Western Advisory Committee at New Orleans, $2212.50—making a total of $125,804.65.

From this statement it appears, that the appropriations made at the office in Philadelphia were greater than those made the year before, $1,114.68; at the office in Louisville they were less by $9401.08; and on behalf of the South-Western Advisory Committee, they were greater by $13,348.50—thus making the total appropriations this year greater than the year preceding by $5062.10.

For the purpose of further comparison we may state, that the average appropriations made during the preceding eight years, from 1852 to 1860, were—at the office in Philadelphia, $54,055.84, and at the office in Louisville, $33,982.34—making a total average of $88,038.18.

From this statement it appears, that the appropriations made from March 1, 1860, to March 1, 1861, at the office in Philadelphia, exceeded the average of those made during the eight previous years, $22,070.41; and at the office in Louisville, $5,197.16—thus making a total excess of appropriations this year, in these two fields, above the average appropriations of the eight preceding years, $27,267.57.

As the missionary appointments are made for six or twelve months, and are scattered over the whole year, of course a large number of the appropriations made during the year have not yet fully matured, but will be falling due as the present year advances.

RECEIPTS.

The total amount of receipts from all sources, from March 1, 1860, to March 1, 1861, is $113,393.87, to which add balances on hand in the different treasuries, March 1, 1860, $29,911.29; making the available resources of the Board during the year, $143,305.16.

The amount paid out at the office in Philadelphia, including the Presbyterial treasuries, was $96,094.37; at the office in Louisville, $18,929.76; and at the office in New Orleans, $17,387.30; making the total amount of payments during the year, $132,411.43—leaving in all the treasuries on the 1st of March, 1861, $10,893.73, which is a smaller sum by $19,017.56, than that reported on the 1st of March, 1860. Of this balance of $10,893.73, only $16.70 can be appropriated by the Board to the general field, as all the rest belongs to, and is held by the South-Western Advisory Committee and the Independent treasuries, for disbursement within their respective fields. The amount due the missionaries on the 1st of March, 1861, including $7,449.80 for services which had been rendered and actually reported, was $28,332.71, which is more by $17,438.98 than the whole sum remaining in the various treasuries at that time.

From the above statements it appears that the aggregate balance, in all the treasuries, on the 1st of March, 1861, was less by $19,017.56. than on the 1st of March, 1860. The balances in the treasuries at Philadelphia and Louisville on the 1st of March, 1860, was $17,291.66; and on the 1st of March, 1861, there was in both treasuries only $16.70, while at the same time there was a debt unpaid of $7,449.80 for missionary services reported. Thus showing that with regard to the treasuries at Philadelphia and Louisville, the financial condition of the Board was worse by $24,724.76, on the 1st of March, 1861, than at the same date the preceding year.

The aggregate receipts, from March 1st, 1860, to March 1st, 1861, have been less, as compared with the receipts from March 1st, 1859, to March 1st, 1860, $5,510.34. There has been a decrease, in individual or special donations and legacies, at the office in Philadelphia, of $13,499.06, an increase at the office in Louisville of $1,561.80, and a decrease at the office in New Orleans of $1,693, making the total amount received from individual or special donations and legacies, less by $13,630.26 than the preceding year. There has been a decrease in receipts from churches, at Philadelphia, of $342.58, an increase at the office in Louisville of $3,865.12, an increase at the office in New Orleans of $4,195.28, and an increase in the Independent Treasuries of $402.10; making the total increase of receipts from churches $8,119.92. The receipts at the office in Philadelphia, from all sources, were less by $13,439.54; were greater at the office in Louisville by $5,426.92, and greater at New Orleans by $2,502.28 than the preceding year.

OUR MISSIONS.

During the year the Board have established new missions in various sections of our country, as well in larger cities and towns, as in smaller villages and rural districts. They have also, to the extent of their ability, reinforced our missionaries in the newer States and Territories. One missionary has been added to the number in Arkansas, three in California, one in Delaware, one in the District of Columbia, seven in Illinois, nine in Indiana, two in Kansas, ten in Kentucky, fifteen in Louisiana, two in Maryland, one in Massachusetts, two in Michigan, six in Minnesota, eight in Mississippi, one in Missouri, one in Nebraska, nine in New Jersey, four in North Carolina, six in Ohio, eleven in Pennsylvania, three in Tennessee, nine in Texas, and four in Virginia. The number of missionaries in Alabama has been reduced one, in Florida one, in Iowa two, in New York one, in Oregon one, in Washington two, and in Wisconsin two. Thus we have a total increase of one hundred and six missionaries.

As the receipts of the Board have not been in proportion to the expanded operations of the Board, it has been found necessary to commence a gradual reduction of our appropriations, and this must be continued from necessity, unless the receipts are augmented.

We state in this connection, as heretofore, that we have continued to employ a number of missionaries among our foreign population. Three have laboured among the French, one among the Welsh, and twenty-seven among the Germans. Many of our missionaries labouring in the Southern States devote a portion of their time to the coloured population.

During the year, sixty of our missionaries have been employed as itinerants. A large portion of our missionaries perform more or less of such service, but the above number are either wholly, or almost entirely thus employed.

CLOTHING.

Clothing valued at $19,832.73 has been received during the year, and distributed among the missionaries who needed it. Of this amount, $12,119.71 was received at the office in Philadelphia, $4,140.73 at the office in Louisville, $1,457.45 at the depot in Pittsburg, and $2,114.84 at the office in New Orleans.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1861.

Part I.—Ministerial Education.

Candidates.—The following statistical table exhibits the operations of the Board of Education in the department of candidates for the Ministry:

The number of new candidates received has been . .		138
Making in all, from the beginning (in 1819,) . . .		3090
The whole number on the roll during the past year has been		505
In their Theological course, ...	191
" Collegiate "	205
" Academical "	109
	505

The aggregate number of candidates this year is thirteen more than that of last year. The report of last year embraced several candidates received, as was stated in last year's report, between the close of the fiscal year and the meeting of the Assembly. These, of course, properly belong to the present year, and ought to be deducted from the number of new students reported in 1860. The numbers for the two years, respectively, would then stand as follows:

For the year ending 1860, 163.
" " " 1861, 156.

This increase is above the high standard of 1859, a standard far in advance of the attainments of any previous year in the history of the operations of the Board since 1839.

In order that the Assembly may be enabled to note the progress of this department, the following table is appended, exhibiting the yearly increase or diminution, both in respect to new candidates, and aggregates, for the last ten years:

Years.	New Candidates.	Whole number of Candidates.
1852	69	388
1853	81	370
1854	104	342
1855	125	364
1856	102	382
1857	92	383
1858	103	385
1859	141	391
1860	181	492

In the course of the year, two candidates have left off study on account of ill health; two have been dropped by advice of their Presbyteries; two have been stricken from the roll for violating a rule of the Board by marrying; two have been set aside for improper conduct; one has been obliged to relinquish study on account of the death of his father; and two have died.

Whilst the Board would make record of their gratitude for the success with which it has pleased the Head of the Church to crown their labours, they feel that there is cause for humiliation that so little has been done. The wants of a perishing world, the resources of the Church, over which the Assembly presides, both in men and means, and the claims of Him who has commanded and commissioned the Church, to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature, certainly warrant a larger annual accession of candidates, and a more liberal provision for their support.

These two things—the annual increase of candidates, and the annual provisions made for their sustentation—are very closely connected. Young men may have all the gifts and graces necessary to make them useful and able ministers of the word, and yet may not feel that they are called to encounter the hardships incident to a thorough preparation for the ministry. The history of many who, in obedience to the call, have left and hazarded all for the Master's sake, admonishes them of the risk of health and comfort they are likely to incur by entering upon the ministerial curriculum. The privations of our young men, though borne in secret, and with patience, do eventually, in many instances, become known, and the disclosure operates to the discouragement of many a youth of piety and promise from seeking the gospel ministry.

This is natural. A man may have grace and talents which, if duly cultivated, would qualify him for wielding the sword of the Spirit with power, and yet may conclude, in view of the inadequacy of the means available for the prosecution of the necessary course of study, to serve God in an humbler sphere. From this cause the Church is annually losing large numbers of young men who possess the requisite talents, and yet are constrained, through lack of means, to turn aside to some of the secular callings.

Some may be inclined to censure these youth for their lack of faith; but it would seem that the Church is more deserving of censure for her lack of liberality. It may be a question whether a Christian youth is in the path of duty when he enters upon a course of study under circumstances which must imperil his health and future usefulness, but it cannot be a question whether the Church ought to make ample and adequate provision for the necessities and comfort of those who have consecrated and dedicated to her service their earthly all. Thankful to God for the goal now reached, and grateful for what the liberality of the churches has enabled them to accomplish in the past year, the Board would urge the brethren to renewed efforts and increasing liberality.

STATE OF THE TREASURY.

The following is a general view of the pecuniary affairs of the Board during the ecclesiastical year, ending May 1, 1861:

	Candidates' Fund.	Schools and Colleges.	Miscellaneous Fund.	African Fund.
Receipts, - - -	$45,553 54	$5690 92	$120 00
Balances, 1860, -	12,105 38	239 62	8 76
Total income, - -	$57,658 92	$5930 54	$128 76
Payments, - -	57,329 49	5896 31	120 00
Balances, 1861, - -	$329 43	$34 23	$8 76	$1353 69

Of the African Fund, $1000 is funded.

The total receipts of the year, from all sources, are $51,364.46. The total receipts of the Candidates' Fund are $45,553.54—a decrease from the receipts of last year in this fund, of $19,083.65.

This unusually large decrease is more apparent than real. The Board would therefore append some explanatory remarks:

1. In accordance with the directions of the Assembly, the Board have been accustomed to embrace in their annual reports the operations, both in candidates and funds, of several Presbyteries "which prefer to retain their own organizations, and control directly the education of their own candidates." Several of these had not reported at the close of the fiscal year; and the apparent income is of course diminished by the amount of their operations. The deficiency from this cause is perhaps not less than $5000.

2. The amount of legacies reported last year was unusually large, exceeding the income from the same source, for the present year, $6128.72.

Yet, notwithstanding these modifying considerations, the Board have to confess and mourn over a great decrease in their income, and enter upon the labours of another year with an exhausted treasury. Whilst they have reason to thank God that they have been enabled promptly to meet all claims during the year, without incurring debt, they feel sadly assured that they must ere long resort to the painful and costly expedient of borrowing, to pay the appropriations due those beloved young men to whom the faith and honour of the Church have been pledged. The Board are aware that the unparalleled national distress has contributed to the production of these painful results; but they cherish the hope that the Presbyterian Church will not abandon her educational institutions, or forsake her candidates in this their time of need.

The following table shows the receipts for eleven years, in the Fund for Candidates:

1851, ...	$31,721 80
1852, ...	32,617 04
1853, ...	32,519 52
1854, ...	34,961 26

1856, ...	40,680 04
1857, ...	43,372 31
1858, ...	47,103 07

AFFLICTIVE PROVIDENCES.

The year now closed has been one of the most eventful in the history of the Board. Death has been doing his work among their officers and members. In the course of the year, six of their number have been called home from the toils of the vineyard to the recompense of reward. Notice is here taken only of those who have been officers of the Board.

DEATH OF DR. VAN RENSSELAER.

This stroke, for which our entire Church had been waiting with tearful resignation, has at length descended. Dr. Van Rensselaer has ceased from his labours, and entered upon his reward. He died at his residence in Burlington, on July 25th, 1860, in the full assurance of faith. We say assurance, because this is the word which expresses his experience. He said to a friend, who had the precious privilege of an interview a few weeks before his death—"The word hope is not the proper word. It is not that I hope, but that I know. I know whom I have believed." O the triumphant energy with which those trembling lips emphasized that word know! Truly faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

At a special meeting of the Presbyterian Board of Education, held on the 27th of July, James Dunlap, Esq., one of the Vice-Presidents, in the chair, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted, viz.

Whereas, The Board of Education have received intelligence of the decease of their late beloved Corresponding Secretary, the Rev. Cortlandt Van Rensselaer, D. D., at his residence in Burlington, New Jersey, and are now specially convened in reference to this heavy affliction; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That it is with deep sorrow they have heard of this bereavement—a bereavement which, in its painfully apprehended approach, has filled their hearts with sadness, and which, in its actual occurrence, has produced a feeling of still deeper grief, and a still keener sense of loss.

Resolved, 2. That the Board hereby make record of their gratitude to God for his goodness in bestowing upon the Church and the cause of education, one so highly gifted, and in sparing him until he had aroused the Church to a right estimate of the interests at stake in the Christian training of her beloved youth.

Resolved, 3. That whilst the Board acutely feel and mourn their loss, they bow submissively and with acquiescence to the sovereign will of the all-wise Redeemer, recognizing his right to order all the affairs of his Church according to the counsel of his own will, and acknowledging his grace and faithfulness to his servant, in the abounding consolations and unwavering assurances wherewith he filled his heart, through all the vicissitudes of a wasting disease, and in the tender compassion wherewith he at length so gently unlocked the earthly tenement.

Resolved, 4. That this Board tender their kindest, deepest sympathies to the bereaved wife and family of their departed brother; and that they be furnished with a copy of these resolutions.

Resolved, 5. That the Board will in a body attend the funeral services, to be held at Burlington; and that a committee, consisting of the Rev. William S. Plumer, D. D., Rev. John C. Backus, D. D., Rev. Robert Watts, Hon. George Sharswood, and James Dunlap, Esq., be deputed to accompany the beloved dust to its resting-place in the family vault at Albany.

JAMES DUNLAP, Vice-President.

ROBERT WATTS, Secretary.

DEATH OF THE REV. DR. NEILL.

It is with deep sorrow that the Board add to the catalogue of fallen standard-bearers the name of the Rev. William Neill, D. D. His decease occurred at his residence in Philadelphia, on the morning of Wednesday, August 8th, 1860, in the eighty-second year of his age, after an illness of three weeks. Dr. Neill was more than half a century in the ministry, and has occupied some of the most important and influential positions in our Church. On reference to the archives of the Board of Education, we find his name enrolled in company with the Rev. Dr. Janeway, and Rev. Messrs. Potts, Patterson, Burch, Biggs, Chandler, and Ely, as early as 1818, whilst the organization went by the style and title of the Education Society. He served the Board as General Agent and Corresponding Secretary, from 1829 to 1831, when he was succeeded by the Rev. John Breckinridge. His labours on behalf of the Board did not end with his resignation of the office of Secretary. The interests of the Board had a deep seat in his affections, and faithfully did he labour for their advancement, to the very close of life. Seldom was he absent from their meetings, even in the most inclement weather. His name appears on the minute-book of the Executive Committee, down to the 6th of July—a month previous to his departure from earth. His last end was peace. Among the broken sentences of dissolution, the watchers could catch such precious notes of trust as, "Rest in God," "Sweet peace."

DEATH OF DR. HARRIS.

In addition to these bereavements of loved and venerable servants of God, the Board has been called, during the past year, to mourn the loss of William Harris, M. D., a faithful and highly esteemed fellow-labourer. As a citizen, as a physician, as a ruling elder, as a Vice-President of the Board, and as a member of the Executive Committee, Dr. Harris has so lived and laboured as to cause his departure to be deeply felt. The Board and the Committee have had no member who has taken a warmer interest in the cause of education, or who attended their meetings with more untiring industry. Owing to the nature of his disease, he passed away in a state of unconsciousness; but the testimony of his life remains as the solace of his friends, to give assurance of a happy entrance on the rest that remains for the people of God.

THE OFFICE.

The importance of the office, filled so nobly by their late lamented Secretary, and the expectations of the Church, led the Board to proceed with much prayer and deliberation in choosing a successor. At length, and with singular unanimity, in one of the largest meetings of the Board that has ever been convened, their choice fell upon the Rev. Phineas D. Gurley, D. D., of Washington City. Greatly to the regret of the Board, Dr. Gurley, after a careful consideration of the subject, felt constrained to decline accepting their call. After receiving Dr. Gurley's declinature, the Board awaited the indications of Providence, and at length, in view of the universal derangement of business, and the prospective decrease of funds, judged it best to postpone so important an election until they could have the benefit of the counsel of the brethren during the sessions of the Assembly. They regard the meeting of the Assembly in Philadelphia, at this juncture in their history, as peculiarly opportune, affording, as it does, a larger representation of the Church, from all parts of the country, than could be otherwise obtained. In conformity with these providences, notices have been issued a month in advance, calling a meeting of the Board to be held on the second Friday after the meeting of the Assembly. With this meeting, in which the entire Church and country will be represented, the Board would desire to leave the choice of him who is to take the place, and enter upon the labours from which the beloved Van Rensselaer has for ever ceased; and their prayer is, that the brethren may be directed to him whom God will approve.

Pending the election of a Secretary, the former arrangements for supplying the vacancy have been continued, and the usual business in the office, and among the churches, and the several institutions in connection with the Board, has been conducted with diligence, and with a goodly measure of success. Whilst no additional field agency has been employed, and whilst the Board have relied mainly upon the plan of systematic beneficence, or, in other words, upon the fidelity of pastors and elders in presenting the cause to the churches, they have availed themselves of every proper means to stir up the pure minds of the brethren by way of remembrance. The financial results have been encouraging, as may be seen from the Treasurer's Report. The Board believe, that if all our churches would fall in with the oft-repeated recommendations of the General Assembly, and take collections annually for the cause of education, that there would be no lack of funds to sustain their various operations.

The Board, at the large meeting mentioned above, agreed to recommend to the Assembly a change in the name of the office hitherto known as the office of "Associate Secretary and General Agent." The minute of the Board is as follows:

Resolved, That in the view of the Board, the office held by Dr. Chester, and that to which Dr. Gurley is invited, are, and ought to be, entirely equal and co-ordinate, and that the next General Assembly be requested to give to these offices, alike, the name of Corresponding Secretary.

HOME AND FOREIGN RECORD.

In conformity with the direction of the Assembly, the Executive Committee of the Board took into consideration "the subject of the Home and Foreign Record," and after lengthened deliberation were unable to suggest an improvement. The Committee are of opinion, and in this the Board fully concur with them, that the Record, in its present form, furnishes a most convenient vehicle of communication between the Board and the Church. The Record furnishes all the accommodation which the Board require for the advocacy of the cause of education, or the communication of information to the churches, or the acknowledgment of contributions. For these objects, and for no other, the Board need a monthly, and for these purposes the Record is, in their estimation, both appropriate and sufficient.

COLLEGES.

Through the benevolence of the churches, and of individuals, whose deep interest in the cause of collegiate education has been long and thoroughly proved by the most substantial evidences, the Board have been enabled to maintain their footing in this department, and to continue the usual amount of aid to several institutions of this class. The method of affording aid is twofold. 1. By supplementing the salaries of professors. 2. By aiding the friends of a given collegiate enterprise, in effecting an endowment, in whole or in part, upon the field in which the enterprise may be located. These two methods are closely allied. The former is temporary, and diminishes in amount in proportion to the success of the latter, ceasing altogether, when, through the income of the endowment, or the proceeds of tuition fees, the institution becomes self-sustaining. These remarks apply as well to the method pursued by the Board in aiding academies, and it is their privilege to speak of a goodly measure of success, in both cases, and according to both methods. Through the aid furnished, both in agency and money, several institutions, both academic and collegiate, have been helped through crises in which their very existence was endangered, whilst others have been placed upon a comfortable basis of sustentation. In this field, however, much remains to be done. Many colleges which have been honoured of God in preparing young men for the ministry, and which still enjoy refreshings from the presence of the Lord, colleges which can report no fewer than twenty-three revivals in the course of their history, (which is almost a revival to a year,) are struggling under heavy burdens and trammelled with debts, which must interfere with their usefulness and mar their prospects for years to come. The Board know of no way in which our noble-hearted Christian men of wealth could better advance the cause of science and religion, than by aiding in the endowment or sustentation of these institutions.

It is not the policy of the Board to encourage the multiplication of colleges in the older States, or the establishment of colleges in the new States or Territories, until a sufficient academic basis for supplying them with students has been laid. Their motto is, the academy first and the college afterwards. The wisdom of this rule is illustrated by the entire history of their operations in this department. They are thoroughly of the opinion, that with some exceptions, such as San Francisco, in a community whose growth in all that contributes to civic greatness, places it beyond the sphere of historic comparison, and beyond the application of ordinary rules, it is wisest and best that the college should be preceded by a wide and through academic basis.

CITY COLLEGE, SAN FRANCISCO.

It is with feelings of deep gratitude to God, the Board transfer this institution from the academic to the collegiate roll. All the expectations—even the most sanguine—which have been cherished by the friends of this our first attempt to supply the educational wants of California have been exceeded. In 1859, Dr. Van Rensselaer, in recommending the action of the Synod of the Pacific, in which it was resolved to establish an academy at San Francisco, made the following remarks: That the plan proposed was under the right auspices, having originated with the Synod; that the Synod had begun in the right way, having commenced with the academy; that the academy was in the right place, being located at San Francisco; that the work was undertaken by the right man, Dr. Burrowes; and that the academy was established at the right time, as things move quickly in California, and there is no time to be lost on such a coast. As yet, two years have not passed away, and, lo, the truth of these remarks, and the wisdom of the brethren are more than confirmed. Things have moved quickly on the Pacific coast. On Tuesday, November 1st, 1859, the academy was opened in the basement of Dr. Scott's Church with four scholars, and already the brethren raise their Ebenezer in presence of a college with NINETY students, which is destined to be the UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO! Surely the friends of Christian education, both in the East and in California, who have so liberally aided in founding and fostering this academy, are bound to give thanks for the evidence of the Divine approval bestowed upon this infant enterprise. Brethren, let the success which has crowned your labours, be not only a reward of past toils, but a stimulus to further efforts. Cease not until the Academy, which has already become a College, matures into a University, whose educational appliances shall be adequte to the intellectual and moral requirements of that energetic and rapidly advancing State.

The following table is an attempt, on the part of the Board, to present to the Assembly at one view, the wealth and the poverty of our educational institutions. The table is far from being perfect. Out of seventy-nine institutions, only twenty-six have responded to the inquiries of the Board. In several instances, the parties interrogated have been unable to give information, under all the heads, through the loss of records or from other causes. It is the hope of the Board, that in the course of a few years this table may be perfected, and extended so as to embrace all the institutions of our Church, whether academic, collegiate, or theological.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT, APRIL 30, 1861.

Missions.—These are conducted amongst the Jews, amongst several of our Indian Tribes, amongst the Chinese in California; in New Granada and Brazil, South America; in four of the Roman Catholic countries of Europe; in Western Africa, and in the eastern countries of India, Siam, China, and Japan.

Statistics.—The staff of labourers consists of 81 ordained ministers, of whom 6 are natives of the countries in which they are employed; 130 assistant missionaries, of whom 105 are females; and 80 native teachers, catechists, and Scripture-readers. In the churches under the care of these missionaries, over 2,800 communicants have been gathered by the blessing of God on the work of his servants; and in the mission schools over 4,600 scholars are daily learning Christian lessons. The returns of the European labourers are not included.

Work in Progress.—Brief as these statements are, they show that a large and widely extended work of evangelization is in progress. And it is a reason for deep thankfulness that, in general, the condition and prospects of these missions are full of promise. There have indeed been discouraging providences; and the report records with deep regret the removal by death of six valued labourers, two of whom were ministers of the gospel. Six others, including four ministers, have returned, or are on their way to this country, through failure of health. In several missions, moreover, the brethren have not yet been permitted to see much growth of the good seed of the word; but even in these cases they can work on in faith, not doubting the success of their labours in due season. Positive tokens of the favour of God towards these missions are numerous and cheering. Among these should be mentioned the sending out of 18 missionary labourers during the year, 4 of whom were returning to their stations, and 6 of whom were ordained ministers. The report of no former year gives more favourable returns of members added to the Church. Some of the mission churches have been greatly blessed in this respect. A church in Africa received 38 hopeful converts, a church in China 36, one church in India 20, and another 28. There has been cheering progress, moreover, in several missions in the department of native Christian agency, which is one of the most vital matters in the whole missionary work; the number of native brethren acting in various capacities as assistant missionaries, is on the increase, and their qualifications for usefulness are of a higher grade; some of them are already workmen that need not be ashamed.

Fields open—Labourers ready.—Besides describing the work of the missions, the report adverts in general terms to the condition of the several countries in which they are established, as this hinders or aids the missionary work. The events of Providence during the last year have been very remarkable in some countries; in China the way is prepared for the employment of hundreds of Christian missionaries; in Italy, the Waldensian evangelist preaches the gospel even in Naples. In other missionary lands, there may be less that is of special interest, and in some there are serious hindrances, but in all there is a door open, and a call for labourers. And the Committee echo this call for more men.

In regard to this, one of the most cheering and yet of the most discouraging things in the present aspect of the cause of missions should be stated. Choice and approved men have risen up and offered themselves to be sent forth. A larger number than usual are now under appointment, most of whom could be ready to take their departure within the next two or three months, some of them sooner. But the means of sending them forth have not yet been provided. Not only is this true, but Finances.—The ordinary income of the Treasury was not equal to the expenses of the last year. The receipts, including the sum of $8,600 for losses in India, were $211,108.41; and the expenses $211,080.03, leaving a balance in the treasury of $28.38. The Board was prevented from ending the year in a debt of $8,600 only by the use of compensation money received from the India government for losses of mission property during the rebellion of 1857—money which it was important to reserve for special expenses. The extraordinary state of things in our country during the later months of the financial year of the Board will probably account for the deficiency in the usual receipts; but it will be lamentable indeed if the churches do not stand by this cause in its time of need. Let them resolve rather, by the help of God, that the wants of a perishing world shall not be neglected, and that the walls of Zion shall be built even in troublous times.

The Committee gratefully acknowledge the liberal gifts which have been received from some of the friends of missions; and they indulge the hope that the momentous events of these times will lead all the members of our churches to renewed consecration to the service of Christ, and to a more earnest support of his cause in the world. They earnestly desire that prayer may be offered unto God without ceasing, that this missionary cause may be saved from serious embarrassment, and that all its interests may still enjoy the blessing of the God of heaven.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT, 1861.

The Board reports to the Assembly that its affairs are in a safe condition, and as prosperous as could be reasonably expected at the present time. The sudden death of Joseph P. Engles, Esq., for nearly nineteen years past the Publishing Agent of the Board, is felt to be a great affliction and loss.

During the first part of the year, from March to November, every department of the Board's receipts and operations was largely in advance of the same months in the previous year. Had the same state of business continued to the end of the year, the Board would probably have come out with a very large per centage of increase on the receipts and operations of any previous year. During the remaining four months everything was depressed and set back by the condition of our national and business affairs. Yet, even in these dark times, the Board's plan, to which it has invariably adhered, of so conducting all its affairs as to owe no man anything, has saved it from any loss, save such as is incident to a contraction of its business.

I. Department of Production.

Of books,	409,500	"
Of tracts,	245,000	"
	654,500

Total number of copies of publications during the year, 810,500.

Total number of copies of books and tracts issued by the Board since its organization, 9,600,688.

Special notice is taken in the report of the Letters of John Calvin, the fourth volume of which will soon be issued, and will complete this interesting work. Many French books and tracts have also been published this year.

The Board continues to add to its Sabbath-school Library and apparatus. This Library now contains 273 volumes, and is sold for cash, in plain binding, at $43.88.

Of the Home and Foreign Record, 15,400 copies are now issued. The number has been considerably reduced by striking from the list a number of persons who had made no payment for a number of years.

The circulation of the Sabbath-school Visitor has increased within the year from 60,000 to 75,000, and still continues to increase. The improvements made last year receive warm testimonies of approbation from every part of the Church. Pastors, Sabbath-school superintendents, and teachers are earnestly requested to aid in promoting its circulation.

II. Department of Distribution.

1. Sales at the Depository.—The sales during the year in the Depository have been 225,508 volumes, and 646,951 pages of tracts. The net value of the volumes and tracts thus sold is $35,714.37, which is $4,357.40 less than the amount sold during the year preceding. The Board has sent from the Depository to Theological Seminaries, by order of the General Assembly, and to editors and authors, publications to the additional value of $607.69, making the net value of issues from the bookstore $38,391.78. This is, of course, exclusive of sales and other distributions made by colporteurs, which may be found stated in a later part of this Report. The total catalogue value of the year's issues from the Depository as above, has been $41,247.78.

2. Distributions by the Executive Committee.—During a portion of the year, the Distribution Fund, from which all grants are made, was utterly exhausted. It was, however, happily replenished afterwards by the private liberality of several Christian friends.

Within the past year the Committee has granted

To Mission and other needy Sabbath-schools,	2,925	volumes.
To ships, humane and literary institutions,	663	"
To ministers,	364	"
To feeble churches,	650	"
To individuals for gratuitous distribution,	1,081	"
Total of volumes granted,	5,683
Pages of tracts granted,	263,068

The amount received during the year for the Distribution Fund was $2,406.46. The amount expended in making the above grants was $1,520.30.

Benevolent Christians are asked to remember this Fund. Especially are Sabbath-schools invited to use this appropriate channel for giving libraries to needy and mission Sabbath-schools.

3. Distribution by Colportage.—In no former year have the colportage operations of the Board been so extensive or so effective. The number of colporteurs in commission during the past year has been 242, an increase of 40 over the number last year reported. During the earlier part of the year, while the resources of the Board permitted it, the number was greatly larger than during the same season of any former year. Owing to the want of funds, their number has been much smaller during the latter part of the year.

These colporteurs have performed within the year, 25,016 days, or, (allowing 313 working days to a year, 79 years, 289 days of labour. This is an advance of 6,526 days, or nearly 21 years, upon the report of last year. They have sold 154,522 volumes in the course of their itinerations, an increase of 29,884 upon the number sold last year. The number of volumes given away has been 23,733, an increase of 8813 over the year before. The tracts sent out to colporteurs for gratuitous distribution have amounted to 2,372,016 pages, an increase of 209,422 pages upon the preceding year. The number of families visited has been 184,810, a most gratifying gain of 49,426 visits.

All the aspects of colportage work show not only an increase of results accomplished over any former year, but that the colporteurs had given more prominence than usual to the missionary part of their work.

The colporteurs of the Board have, during the year, extended their labours over thirty-four States, Territories, and British Provinces. In Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and the Canadas, the work has gone forward prosperously as in former years. In Washington Territory a colporteur has been in commission. In Oregon, a zealous and useful elder has been extensively at work.

The Board having engaged the Rev. S. T. Wells as a District Superintendent of Colportage for the Pacific coast, he was sent out to California some months since, with a large and valuable assortment of the Board's publications. Unfortunately, the state of the times, and the deficiency of our Colportage Fund have greatly retarded his plans since his arrival, but he is making preparations for carrying forward the work vigorously at the earliest possible day.

Evidences of the accompanying power of the Spirit of God are scattered through the reports of the colporteurs.

Total of Distribution.—The distributions of the year from all the statements given, we find to be as follows:

Sales of volumes at the Depository, - - - -	225,508
Sales of volumes by Colporteurs, - - - - -	154,522
Volumes given by Colporteurs, - - - -	23,733
Granted by the Executive Committee, - - - -	5,663
Total of volumes distributed,	409,446

Increase of volume circulation, 22,737.

The distribution of pages of tracts has been as follows:

Sales at the Depository, - - - - - - -	646,951
Distributed by Colporteurs, - - - - - -	2,372,016
Granted by the Executive Committee, - - -	263,068
Total pages of tracts distributed,	3,282,035

The Board has likewise issued about an average number of 16,000 copies of the Home and Foreign Record monthly, and 72,000 to 75,000 copies of the Sabbath-school Visitor monthly, besides a variety of Reports, Forms for Systematic Beneficence, Sessional Minutes and Registers, Sabbath-school class-books, &c., in considerable numbers.

The net value of these issues of the year is as follows:

Sales in the Depository,	$37,784.09
Sent to Seminaries, Authors, Editors, &c.	607.69
Sales by Colporteurs,	54,149.75
Home and Foreign Record,	4,527.37
Sabbath-school Visitor,	6,678.21
Total of net value,	$103,747.11

The Catalogue value would be about one hundred and thirteen thousand dollars.

III. Department of Sustentation.

The Treasurer's Report.—The aggregate of receipts into the treasury from all sources, excluding of course the balance on hand at the beginning of the year, has been, $125,240.76, which is $153.69 less than was received the preceding year.

The aggregate of expenditures has been $137,988.55, which is an increase of $11,955.51 over those of the year before. This increase of expenditures has been chiefly owing to the increased number of colporteurs in the field.

The amount of cash received from sales of books, tracts, and periodicals, has been $93,054.65, a decrease of $527.07.

The balance in the treasury at the close of the year, February 28, 1861, was $8750.91.

The Colportage Fund.—The amount received for colportage has been $28,433.97, which is larger by $675.58 than the amount received the year preceding. During the first eight months of the year, the receipts for colportage were very largely in advance of those received during the same months in any preceding year. So rapid, however, owing to the state of public affairs and of business, was the diminution, that before the end of the year this earlier gain had almost disappeared.*

The expenditures for colportage during the year have been $38,146.47, a sum exceeding, by $9712.50, the total receipts. This has increased the balance against the Fund from $3271.01 to $12,983.51.

The number of contributing churches has been between eight and nine hundred, an increase of more than a hundred on the year before.

The average salary of our colporteurs has been $269.68 per year, or 87 cents per day. This is less than half the average wages of intelligent mechanics and other workmen in any part of the land, and shows that pecuniary gain cannot be the impelling motive in these self-denying labours. The entire cost of the Board's colportage work to the Church, including the salary of the colporteur, travelling expenses, freights, cost of books and tracts given away, office expenses in Philadelphia, and everything else connected with the work is, on the average, $476.83 per annum, or $1.52 per day. If we calculate the cost of the work by the visit, instead of by the day or year, it will be found that the colporteur is paid the average sum of 11¾ cents per visit; or that the visit, including all other expenses along with the colporteur's salary, as in the annual cost given above, is about 20¾ cents. The cost of colportage, as conducted by the Board, compares very favourably with the same as conducted by other religious bodies.

FORM OF A DEVISE, OR BEQUEST.

To the Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and to their successors and assigns, I give and bequeath the sum of ; (or, I devise a certain messuage and tract of land, &c.,) to be held by the said Trustees, and their successors for ever, to and for the uses, and under the direction of the said Board of Publication, according to the provisions of their charter.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

COMMITTEE ROOMS, No. 88 Market Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

Corresponding Secretary—Rev. H. I. COE.

Treasurer—ARCHIBALD GAMBLE, Esq.

ABSTRACT OF THE SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

In the present state of the country, the Board of Church Extension deems it proper to confine itself to a very brief statement of its operations during the year.

APPLICATIONS.

The number of applications for aid put on file from April 1, 1860, to April 1, 1861, was one hundred and twenty-one. These applications were from churches in the bounds of thirty Synods, seventy-three Presbyteries, and twenty-seven States and Territories. These one hundred and twenty-one churches ask for aid amounting in the aggregate to $55,555.10, averaging $459.13 each.

Besides these new applications filed during the year, there were on file and undisposed of, April 1, 1860, one hundred applications calling for over $43,000. The Board, therefore, had before them, during the twelve months under review, two hundred and twenty-one applications, calling for nearly $99,000.

The applications filed during the year do not, however, so fully and fairly represent the demands made on the Board as the applications duly prepared for its action, some of which had been filed in previous years. The number of applications thus prepared, on which the Board were called to act definitely in the period under review, was ninety-seven, calling for $46,792.41.

During the year, five applications, calling for $7,250, were declined for want of funds; and forty-six applications, calling for $10,725, were stricken from the file, because the requisite information had not been furnished in the two years allowed for that purpose.

There remained on file and undisposed of, April 1, 1861, applications from ninety-four churches, calling for $36,116.75. A very unusual number of these were ready to be acted upon when the year closed.

APPROPRIATIONS.

During the year ending April 1, 1861, appropriations amounting to $26,863.91 were made to seventy-five churches, in the bounds of fifty-four Presbyteries, and twenty four States and Territories. Leaving out of view "The Children's Church at St. Anne," the average amount appropriated to each of the remaining churches was $218.86. Their names and localities, together with the names and localities of the seven churches from whom appropriations amounting to $1,150 were withdrawn during the year, may be found in the Appendix to this report.

From April 1, 1860, to April 1, 1861, seventy-seven churches received their appropriations. The amount paid to them was $28,421.08.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The appropriated balance in the treasury, April 1, 1860, was $15,585.71. The receipts during the year were $29,892.61. Of this sum, $23,317.76 was from churches, Sabbath-schools, and children, and $6,574.85 from legacies and other sources. The available means of the year, therefore, were $45,478.32.

The expenditures of the year, as shown by the Treasurer's statement, were $31,603.77, leaving in the treasury, April 1, 1861, an appropriated balance of $13,874.55. There were, however, unpaid at that date, appropriations amounting to $16,315.65. The liabilities, therefore, of the Board exceeded the means on hand at the close of the year $2,441.10.

COST OF CHURCH EDIFICES.

The Board have continued to act upon the conviction that the gifts of the benevolent should not be used to build expensive churches. Since its organization, July, 1855, appropriations have been made to four hundred and eleven different churches. Of these, fifty-three were special appropriations, for which the Board is not responsible. As nearly as can be ascertained, the remaining three hundred and fifty-eight church edifices cost $728,740, or 2,036 a piece.

If the Children's Church, and the special donations the Board did not control, be left out of view, the average cost of the churches the Board aided during the year was $1,670 each.

THE CHILDREN'S CHURCH.

In obedience to the directions of the last General Assembly, the Board entered promptly on the work of furnishing the necessary church-edifices to our Canadian French people in Illinois. St. Anne and the surrounding points were visited and examined in the month of June last, by the Secretary. He found all with whom he could consult, clear in the conviction that a church ought at once to be erected at St. Anne, capable of seating at least one thousand persons. Those in charge of the colony had already begun to quarry and haul stone for the church, in order to furnish employment and food for the people until their crops could ripen. This state of affairs, with the expensiveness of lumber, and the general impression that a very large frame building would not be safe in such an exposed prairie locality, led the Board to undertake the erection of a stone church at St. Anne. To secure the necessary means, a special appeal in behalf of this enterprise was made to the children and Sabbath-school children of the Church. Most nobly have they responded, the Board having received $9333.01 for this object. As the various contributions for the Children's Church at St. Anne, as the building has appropriately been named, have been fully acknowledged elsewhere, and the house is not yet finished, we reserve a more detailed statement for a future report. Great difficulties have for some months beset the work among the Canadian French in Illinois, but the indications of the will of God have been such as to make it clear that the church ought to be completed as soon as possible.

CONCLUSION.

In closing this report, we must express our gratitude to God, that he has put it into the hearts of his people to contribute, through us, more than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, in the last six years, for the work of church extension, and that with this sum more than four hundred churches have been aided in securing suitable sanctuaries. It is our conviction, that the same amount of money has seldom accomplished more for the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom, and that, when the results are fully manifest, every contributor will greatly rejoice in his gifts to this work of the Lord.

FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS, AND THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMITTEE OF TRUSTEES IN RELATION TO DISABLED MINISTERS IN NEED, AND THE NEEDY WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

Within the year ending May 1st, 1861, the Trustees of the General Assembly have disbursed from the money contributed for "disabled ministers in need, and the needy widows and orphans of deceased ministers," $6782.51. These have been divided in different sums among twenty-four ministers, twenty-six widows, in most cases with children, and two families of orphans. Fourteen hundred and seventy dollars of the money thus distributed are from a balance in the treasury at the last report. Only $5308.87 have been contributed for this purpose by the churches during the year. Our receipts, therefore, are about $1500 less than what we have expended.

To meet expected applications for aid that may be made before the usual season of receiving the largest collections of the churches, there was at the end of the year a balance in the treasury of $2506.98. Almost $1000 have been drawn out since the Treasurer made his report to the Trustees. This balance is $1473.64 less than the sum remaining May 1, 1860. The rule prescribed by the Assembly of giving aid only on application of a Presbytery, signed by the Stated Clerk, effectually guards the Trustees from mistake in their appropriations, and at the same time relieves them of great responsibility.

It is believed that in all cases the Presbyteries have acted with proper caution in their recommendations for assistance, and that in no one instance has the money given been misapplied. According to the statements made to the Trustees in this official way, some of the recipients of this money are persons who have lived beyond the age of three-score years and ten, or four-score. Others less advanced in life are disabled by various chronic affections, such as disease of the throat, of the lungs, the liver, or by a general prostration of health, which renders them incapable of any sort of remunerative labour.

A sample of these sufferers may be furnished the Assembly in the case of a minister in the remote West, but recently brought to the notice of the Committee. He has been for months kept from his pulpit by a painful disease, which is probably incurable. He has seven children, the oldest of whom is only fourteen, and they are without any means of support whatever. Two congregations, one of which is very poor, have supported them through the past winter, or they would have wanted the necessaries of life. The Presbytery to which this brother belongs consists of thirteen ministers, four of whom are infirm, six are stated supplies, two are without charge, and only one is a settled pastor.

Among the twenty-six widows are some with families of children too young or too sickly to do much for their own support or that of their mother. In several cases the money given to these ladies affords a comfortable maintenance only by eking out the inadequate earnings of their needle, or of their labours in teaching. Others can do nothing to maintain themselves, and are entirely dependent on what they receive from this fund, without which they would want the necessaries of life. Not a small proportion of the receivers of this aid are persons of culture and refinement, which renders it a service of no little delicacy to impart relief in such a way as to save it from the eleemosynary aspect of an ordinary charity—to make these friends feel that what they receive is less our gift than our debt—that this agency of their brethren through the Trustees of the Assembly is an expression not of pity, but of respect and fraternal love.

A young minister, laid aside by hemorrhage of the lungs, which, it is feared, are incurably diseased, writes to our Treasurer:

My dear Sir—

Yours of the 3d inst reached me this evening, and I at once acknowledge, with heartfelt gratitude to God, and to you and the good brethren with whom you are associated in this matter, the receipt of a check for $200 from the Fund for Disabled Ministers, &c.

Little did I think, when I first began to aid this Fund, that I should ever be aided by it. And I am very sure, if the several donors knew what pressure is thus relieved, what gladness is thus diffused, they would all feel that it is truly a blessed thing thus to give to the poor and lend to the Lord.

May God abundantly bless and prosper you, and compassionately regard all who are poor and needy.

Very truly yours, ——— ———.

The letters sent to acknowledge the remittances of the Treasurer are sometimes affecting, and are evidently the promptings of devout and grateful hearts.

An aged minister, writing from Wisconsin, says: "Your letter, inclosing a check on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, was received this day. Though this was unsolicited from man, I have often asked the Lord to incline some one who could spare it as well as not, to send me some relief in my present situation. I received this, therefore, as coming directly from the hand of the Lord. I cannot help thinking of that expression of David, 'I never saw the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.' I have often found it true in my case, that man's extremity is God's opportunity. But here is a new consolation springing up in the Church in these later days. When all other sources fail us, God is putting it into the heart of her wealthy children, to provide for the aged, disabled, and infirm. May the Lord reward you abundantly, and all who are concerned with you in this noble and truly Christian enterprise."

This is but a sample of many letters that come from these Christian brethren, which show at once their need of relief, and the thankful spirit with which it is received.

And in view of the great utility of this "bounty," (2 Cor. ix. 5,) of the pleasure and benefit it imparts to both giver and receiver, the Trustees have been pained at the manifest indifference with which it is treated by so large a proportion of our churches. Of the 3531 reported in the Minutes of the last Assembly, only 241 have contributed anything to this Fund during the year; and the average amount given by each of these is less than $22. Of our 171 Presbyteries, the Treasurer reports that 84 have sent him nothing; and among these non-contributing Presbyteries are some of our largest and most wealthy.

The Trustees regret the neglect of many Presbyteries to investigate, and present for relief, cases of suffering within their bounds, not one-half of which, it is believed, are regularly reported. Not a few are prevented from disclosing their necessities by timidity or delicacy, which makes them rather submit to severe want, than to volunteer in making their condition known. It is also a matter of surprise to the Trustees, that so many of our ministers, and even whole Presbyteries, are still ignorant of this provision of the General Assembly for their disabled and needy brethren. Letters occasionally received from the destitute widows and children of deceased ministers, show that they have applied in vain to members of certain Presbyteries for information concerning the existence of any fund for their relief, or of the proper mode of making it available to themselves.

The Trustees would repeat the opinion so often expressed before, in relation to both this duty itself and the method proposed by the Assembly for discharging it. They think it a work not only of the highest importance, but that it is the simplest, least expensive, and most effective way of doing it, that can be adopted. They cordially approve of the action of the last Assembly, in giving it a separate head in the schedule of annual contributions; and they regret the oversight, by which the form of the Presbyterial Report to the General Assembly was not changed, as required by their resolution.

The Trustees cannot conclude their report to the Assembly without adverting to one fact more, and which, in their opinion, serves to show the very great and increasing necessity for this department of their labour. The number is not small, of venerable ministers in advanced age, who are retaining pastoral charges, whose duties they are poorly able to perform. In many instances, they feel their burden to be greater than they can well sustain; but to relinquish their pulpits, is to deprive their families and themselves of their only visible means of support. Some are clinging to their people with an unrequited affection, in spite of many significant hints and mortifying neglects to which they are subjected. But with wounded feelings, and almost broken hearts, they hold on from year to year, in earnest prayer to God, that they may not be "cast off in the time of old age"—may not be "forsaken when their strength faileth." To seek another settlement, and form new associations at their advanced period of life, is impracticable. Without relatives that are able or willing to help them; without the sympathy of a congregation—most of whom are younger than themselves—their faith sometimes almost fails; and they contemplate the increasing infirmities of age, aggravated by poverty, with a depression and solicitude which none can understand nor imagine, but they who know them by experience.

Within a few years, provision has been made by a large body of the orthodox Independents of England, for the retirement of such aged and infirm ministers. And would the churches under the General Assembly all co operate; could their hearts be touched, and their sympathies so far moved, as to make their annual offerings for this object, it would be enough. It is confidently believed, that without so great an increase of their contributions as would be felt by themselves, they would bring to our treasury a revenue sufficient not only for this exigency of our Church, but for every other it might be called to meet.

TRI-CENTENARY DELEGATION.

The subjoined, having been inadvertently omitted, is inserted here by the Stated Clerk.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26th, 1861.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly:

Rev. and Dear Sir—As one of the Delegation appointed by the General Assembly of 1859, to attend the Tri-centenary celebrations of Presbyterianism, to be held in Great Britain, it is proper that I should make some report.

In the month of April of last year, the Rev. Nicholas Murray, D. D., and myself sailed for Europe, the only members of the original delegation who went on the mission. On arriving in London, we found that the contemplated celebration there would not take place. The original idea was to hold a convention representing the various Presbyterian bodies throughout the world, in that metropolis, and to attend this was the primary object of our appointment. It was found impracticable, however, and the scheme, excellent as it was, was abandoned.

On our arrival in Edinburgh, we found that the General Assemblies, both of the Free and the Established Churches, were arranging for a celebration as a part of their proceedings. We therefore reported ourselves to these bodies, and were invited to sit with them.

Our reception by the Established Church was particularly cordial. They set apart a special time for our reception, and after we had addressed them, passed a very gratifying resolution, offered by the Rev. Dr. Cooke, Moderator of the preceding Assembly, and supported by Professor Lee of the University, and Principal Tulloch, the well-known author of the prize treatise on "Theism." The Moderator also addressed us in very fraternal terms. Dr. Cooke was so kind as to say, that if that Assembly should hereafter be remembered especially for any one thing more than another, it would be the visit of their American brethren.

Lord Belhaven, the Queen's High Commissioner to the General Assembly, was very kind in the manifestations of his courtesies and hospitalities.

In the Free Church Assembly there was no formal reception. They were much crowded with business, and a large number of delegates were in attendance from other bodies. In the Ter-centenary proceedings, arrangements had previously been made for the reading of papers on special topics, many of which occupied much time. But we were called upon to address the Assembly, which we did, and the Moderator responded in very pleasant terms. From the Rev. Dr. Cunningham, the Rev. Sir Henry Moncrieff, and other leading ministers of the Free Church, we received the kindest attention, with expressions of great affection and interest towards the body we represented.

From the Moderator of the United Presbyterian Synod, we received a gratifying communication, stating that they greatly regretted not being apprized of our presence in Edinburgh on the occasion of their Ter-centenary proceedings.

A celebration of a more general character was held in August in Edinburgh, of which we were informed, but other arrangements precluded our attendance; and, moreover, it did not in any way receive the endorsement of the General Assemblies, a circumstance which led us to conclude that they did not regard it with entire favour.

Altogether, our visit to the Presbyterian bodies of the Old World was one of great interest to us, and we trust it has served in some measure to impart to our brethren there more correct views of the character and workings of our own Church, and of Presbyterianism in general in this country.

Since my colleague, Dr. Murray, returned home, he has been called, as you are aware, to join the General Assembly and Church of the first-born on high —so that I am left alone to speak of this fraternal intercourse, which, as the representatives of the General Assembly, we we permitted to enjoy. Much more might be said, but this will serve to give some idea to the Assembly of the manner in which we fulfilled our mission.

Very respectfully yours, JOHN LEYBURN.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of the respective Synods to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, if they have no printed blanks, after the form on page 401 of these Minutes. Blanks can always be obtained gratis on application to the Stated Clerk.
2. To make their Reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of figures.
3. To make them as accurate and full as possible. If, in any instance, churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that their number of communicants should be inserted from their last report.
4. To report no cents. The Assembly has so ordered. If therefore they are reported, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly is obliged to throw them out altogether, or to incorporate them with the dollars. This costs him a serious amount of labour, to which he ought not to be subjected.
5. To add up each column of figures with care. Many still neglect this, and thus oblige the Clerk of the Assembly to do what they should do themselves.
6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organization of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.
7. To transmit their reports to the Stated Clerk, either at the meeting of the Assembly, or to Philadelphia, not later than the first day of June.

N. B.—The General Assembly, in its sessions at Nashville, Tennessee, directed that the Presbyterial Reports should be made out at or before the Spring meetings of Presbyteries, and read in Presbytery for ratification and sanction.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but are kept for sale by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, 821 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

THE CONTINGENT FUND.

There is still a necessity for calling the particular attention of the Churches and Presbyteries to the Contingent Fund. The expenses for which it provides are indispensable, not only to the vigorous working, but to the maintenance of our ecclesiastical organism. And in this certainly every church, and every member of the Church, will feel an interest.

REGULATION RESPECTING THE MINUTES.

Adopted by the Assemblies of 1836 and 1837. Directed to be republished in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Each Presbytery shall forward to the Treasurer, for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, at or before the meeting of the Assembly in each year a, sum equal to fifty cents for each member of the Presbytery, and for any licentiate or other person who shall desire the Minutes, and whose post-office address shall be given. And the Stated Clerk shall not forward the Minutes to the members of any Presbytery from which no such remittance shall be made, but only to the Stated Clerk of such Presbytery, and to such members as shall forward the sum above stated.

In addition to the above, where copies are sent by mail, five cents additional must be forwarded to prepay postage.

SPECIAL PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

In the Minutes of the General Assembly for the year 1821, is the following important rule, which was adopted by the Assembly.

An overture from the Synod of North Carolina, was received and read, and is as follows, viz.

"Whereas, The General Assembly is the highest and most important judicatory of the Presbyterian Church; and whereas, to obtain the Divine blessing on that judicatory must appear to every Christian of our denomination to be a matter of the utmost moment; therefore

"Resolved, that the Synod do respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of recommending to all the churches under their care, to observe, annually, the afternoon or evening previous to the meeting of that body, as a season of special prayer to Almighty God for his blessing; that he would, of his infinite mercy, condescend to superintend and direct all their measures, deliberations, and decisions; so that all may redound to the promotion of his own glory, and the general prosperity of that particular Church to which we belong."
